The Premiums are payable yearly in advance;
or, at the option of the Assured, half-yearly, with a slight increase of the rate.

The Capital and Profits of this Institution are the ENTIRE PROPERTY of the holders of Policies of Insurance.

The Profits will be divided amongst the holders of Policies, at the termination of every period of THREE YEARS, after the year 1850, when the first distribution will take place; and each holder may determine that his Share shall be added to the sum assured by him;—or converted into a present payment;—or applied in reduction of the future annual premiums payable by him.

The pecuniary advantages, therefore, are the greatest that can be secured to Policy-holders in any Institution of this nature.

Any Person whose Life is assured, and who has paid Five Annual Premiums, may proceed direct to any part of this Colony, and to any dependency thereof;—and to any part of Europe in time of peace, at his pleasure.

Any Person whose Life is assured may proceed direct to any part of this Colony, and to any dependency thereof by sea and by land, at his pleasure.

For those who have not paid Five Annual Premiums, a Licence from the Board of Directors, but no additional Premium, is required when they proceed beyond the limits of this Colony and the dependencies thereof.

No Institution of this nature, it will therefore be seen, can reasonably consult the convenience of the assured to a greater extent.

By comparing the Rates or Scale of Premiums, the Public will perceive that those adopted by this Society are lower than those adopted by any respectable and safe Companies, in which, of course, a proper return for paid-up Capital, for risks, with profit to the Shareholders, must be provided for, as well as the benefit of the Assured or Policy-holders.

In this Society the Members and Policy-holders being the only Shareholders, receive back directly whatever excess of Rate the Tables may still retain. Every error, therefore, fully corrects itself;—and in this respect, also, MUTUAL ASSURANCE SOCIETIES excel all others.

The Principle and Tables of the Scottish Equitable Life Assurance Society have been adopted; and that Society in the course of only thirteen years from its commencement, after meeting all demands, sets forth, that its "NETT REALISED FUNDS amounts to £263,719 6 8,"—although in Scotland the rate of interest is more than FORTY PER CENT. LOWER THAN AT THE CAPE.

COMPLEXION;

successfully renders HARSH and ROUGH SKINS, beautifully soft, smooth, and even.

The KALYDOR is equally indispensable in the Nursery as at the Toilet. Perfectly innocuous, it may be used by the most delicate Lady, with the assurance of safety and efficacy.

To MOTHERS NURSING their OFFSPRING, it gives in all cases of incidental Inflammation, immediate relief cools the mouth of the Infant, and enhances internal pleasure in the act of administering alimentary nourishment.

To GENTLEMEN, whose faces are tender after Shaving.
—A great infelicity which attends the operation of shaving, is the irritation of the skin;—many Gentlemen suffer greatly from this cause. Rowland's Kalydor will be found excellent (beyond precedent) in ameliorating and allaying that most unpleasant sensation.

It protects the Skin from the baneful effects occasioned either by intense solar heat or cold winds, and thus to the Traveller, whose avocations expose him to various changes of weather, proves an infallible Specific—a prompt resource;
and, as conducing to comfort, a pleasing appendage and invaluable acquisition.

TESTIMONIALS.

TO MESSRS. ROWLAND AND SON.

Gentlemen,—I with pleasure acknowledge the singular benefit I have derived from your excellent Kaledor. My face, which has been subject to Inflammation and Eruption for years, is now restored; and my friends to whom I recommended it, gave it their decided approbation.
Please to send six bottles per bearer of this note.

I remain, Gentlemen, your obedient Servant,
Bangor, Sept. 17, 1827.

A. H.

TO MESSRS. ROWLAND AND SON.

Gentlemen,—I am happy to inform you, that the virtue of your Kaledor has obtained great fame, and that there is scarcely a Lady or Gentleman, but which has it at her toilet; it is not only a favourite with the ladies, but is equally beneficial to Gentlemen; and one of our first physicians, sixty years of age, whose face was in a state of continual inflammation so as to render shaving impossible, has been entirely cured. He is much gratified, and recommends it to all families.
I am, Gentlemen, yours, &c.

G. VOSS.

TO MESSRS. ROWLAND AND SON.

Gentlemen,—Having recently recovered from an almost fatal illness arising from the effects of morbid poison being imbibed by a wound I received in dissection last November, I have, in consequence of the extreme tenderness of my skin, used your Kalydor, and consequently can bear testimony to its good effects; also in several cases of cutaneous defect.

ROWLAND'S MACASSAR OIL.

This faithful assistant of nature has from intrinsic worth alone during the last half century, acquired the highest PATRONAGE, the several SOVEREIGN and COURT STAMPS, and with RARE, FASHION, and LASCIVIOUS superadded all the attributes of a perfectly similar import. It is therefore eminently successful in nourishing in force and beauty the Human Hair, in all climates, and in all stages of existence; the following is a brief notice of some of its PRINCIPAL VIRTUES, as a mild, stimulative corrective and preservative agent for the Hair. The subject is more fully treated in a small pamphlet which accompanies each bottle of ROWLAND'S MACASSAR OIL, an wherein important hints and advice will be found on the Culture of the Hair of Infancy, and on its reservation and beauty through the several stages of human life.

Infancy.

Its balsamic properties nourish the Hair in its embryonic state, accelerate its growth, sustain it in maturity, and continue the possession of healthy vigour, silky softness, and luxurious redundancy to the latest period of human life. Genial and purifying, it dispels all scurf and impurity, and renders the use of the hair comb unnecessary.

Baldness.

Its re-productive powers are constantly and surprisingly shown in cases of Baldness from whatever cause arising (proved by numerous testimonials open for inspection at the Proprietors,) in eliciting, unerringly, from the latent stem the active progression of vitality so that in numerous instances where other specifics have been tried in vain ROWLAND'S MACASSAR OIL has superseded the ornaments of art by re-creating in full plenitude of beauty the permanent graces and utilities of nature.

Grey Hair.

Its nourishing properties are eminently successful in the PREVENTION of Grey Hair, and in the RESTORATION to its original colour—also proved by testimonials.

Hickeys and Moustachios.

Its extraordinary fecundity is singularly displayed in creating in these ornaments of manhood, and in the production of strong and beautiful Hair.

Curl and Embellishment.

Its invigorating properties induce a strong tendency to curl: to Archaic curl it imparts a look of vivacity and lightness and sustains the Head Dress in all the beauties of decorative formation, glossy curl, and silky softness, unimpaired by the heated atmosphere of crowded rooms, or damp weather.

Scalping and violent Exercises.

After indulging in either of these, so apt in their consequence (by opening the pores) to exhaust the nourishing matter secreted at the roots or bulbs of the hair, the Macassar Oil will be found most efficacious, both in preserving and in immediately restoring the hair to its usual appearance of health with renovated brightness.

CLIMATE.

This inestimable Oil preserves its virtues unimpaired by change of climate, and is alike in use from the frigid to the torrid zone, from the assemblies of St. Petersburg to those of Calcutta and the remote East.

CAUTION.

UNPRINCIPLED SHOP-KEEPERS, for the sake of gaining a trade more profit, vend the most spurious trash under the title of "MACASSAR OIL," some under the implied sanction of royalty.

It is therefore imperative on Purchasers to see that the words

are in two lines on the Wrapper of each bottle, and on the inside of the Wrapper nearly 1,500 times, containing 29, 28 letters.

Price 3s. 6d. - 7s. - Family Bottles, (equal to 4 small.) 10s. 6d. and double that size, 21s. per Bottle
Sold by A. S. ROBERTSON, Heerengracht, Cape Town.

TO GENTLEMEN who suffer from tenderness and irritation of the face after shaving, ROWLAND'S KALYDOR will have an unrivalled effect in alleviating and allaying irritation and smarting pain, and rendering the skin soft and smooth.

It is invaluable as a renovating and refreshing Wash during the heat and dust of Summer, or Frost and bleak Winters; and, in cases of Sun burn, Stings of Insects, Chloasma, Chapped Skin, or incidental Inflammation, its virtues have long and extensively been acknowledged.

Its reviving and refreshing properties have obtained its official sanction by the COURT, and the ROYAL FAMILY of Great Britain, and those of the Continent of Europe, together with the "Elite" of the Aristocracy and "Haute Voie" from the sultry climes of India, and the Drawing-rooms of Calcutta and Madras, to the frozen realms of the Czar and the SALONS of St. Petersburg and Moscow.

CAUTION.

Its high and universal reputation causes UNPRINCIPLED SHOP-KEEPERS to offer spurious compounds for sale under the title of "KALYDOR," composed of mineral astringents, utterly ruinous to the Complexion, and by their repellent action causing germs of health.

It is therefore imperative on purchasers to see that the words

"ROWLAND'S KALYDOR"

are on the Envelope (an Engraving of exquisite beauty from a sketch by Messrs PERKINS, BACON & Co.) To protect the Public from Fraud, The Lion Commissioners of Stamps have directed the Proprietors' Name and Address, thus—

A. ROWLAND & SON,

20, Hatton Garden

to be engraved on the Government Stamp which is affixed on each bottle. Price 4s. 6d. and 8s. 6d. per Bottle.

GENTLEMEN,

Think it but an act of justice to inform you of the benefit I have derived from the use of your admirable Macassar Oil. About six months ago I found my hair getting daily more and more thin, and much discoloured; fearing that I should lose it entirely, and hearing of the efficacy of your Macassar Oil, I have for some time past constantly used it, and the result is, that my hair is now perfectly restored and much improved in appearance and colour, having become thick, black and glossy; it also curls freely without the use of pomade, which it never did before. To all my friends I have warmly recommended your Macassar Oil as an excellent restorative and preservative for the hair. As I have an objection to see any name in print, I beg you will not publish it, but to save me the trouble of how this letter, or make any other use of it in place of it, and refer a picaresque to me, if necessary, in proof of the efficacy of your Macassar Oil.
Yours obedient servant.

Secretaris van H. M. H. Commissaris.

GOUVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

NADemaal het oude Kommando Stelsel een stelsel was van groot ongerief, slecht georganiseerd en geschild, en zeer krachteloos, schoon onovermatelyk, zoo wordt voorgesteld eene gewijzigde maat daar te stellen, gevond in Comaguren en Bataljons op het principe van de Yeomany van groot Brittanien. De weerbare Ingezetenen worden o, geroepen door den Gouverneur hunne namen te enrollen, in de onderscheiden steden en dorpen als bereid om te dienen, of eenen plaatsvervanger te leveren, t.w. een weerbare Hottentot gewapend. Sir Henry Smith, by den ontvangst van de rollen van de Civile Commissarissen, Voederers, enz., zou in staat zijn hen te vormen in Bataljons, in hunne eizene nabylheid, Officieren aan te stellen uit hun midden, en zich in staat te stellen te rekenen op eene bekwaame en gewapende magt, op de dadelijk te Frontier, ingeval van toekomstige inval — dat de Hemel verhoede! en verniyden het wegveeren van hun huis op onlegen tyden van vaders van huisgezinnen en landbouwers. De waarlyk trouwe Ingezetenen van dit deel der Kolonie om practicaal hunne trouw en liefde voor de tegenwoordige orde van zaken te toonen door voortuit te treden op een oogenblik zoo als dat, nu aangevezen. Deze magt zou worden opgeroepen om eens in het jaar vier dagen lang uit te trekken, om hunne wapenen en appointementen te doen inspecteren, dat de zelve in goede orde zyn, op welke dagen ieder Officier onder-Officier en Gemeene de dagelyksche betaling van zynen rang in Hare Majesteits dienst zou genieten. De Ingezetenen moeten de ellende en verwoesting hen zoo kort geleden aangedaan niet vergeten. Nu is de tyd om de uitvoerende magt in staat te stellen zulks voor het toekomstige te voorkomen, door bekwaame middelen en die minst geschikt zyn de bevooroordeelde partijen ongerief aan te doen.

De Civile Commissarissen zullen dadelijk stappen nemen om het bedoelde einde te bevorderen, lysen doen openen in de Districten Albany, Uitenhage, Graaff-Reinet, Semarset, Colesburg en Cradock, en de zelve met het meest mogelijk verwyf in te zenden, benevens de namen der gekozen Officieren.
King Williams Town, 21 Dec. 1847.
Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. Hare Majesteits
Hooge Commissaris,
RICHARD SOUTHEY,
Secretaris van H. M. H. Commissaris.

GOUVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

NADemaal de Proclamatie van de 21st en December 1847, de toekomstige stand en rezenie bepaald van de Kaffer in "Britsch Kafferaria" en de Kaffer opperhoofden zich daaraan hebben onderworpen, worden alle Zendingen zenuwied naar hunne Zendingen terug te keeren. En op dat een misverstand moge ontstaan, geeft Hare Majesteits Hooge Commissaris kennis, dat het land van hunne Zendingen Station zal worden gehouden van Hare Majesteit en van geen Kaffer opperhoofd hoeg naamd. Alle gemakken zullen worden gegeven aan de Zendingen en strekkende tot het groote bedoelde einde — de bekeering tot het Christendom en de beschaving — en deze pynzwaardige heeren kunnen staat maken op de grootste ondersteuning en bescherming van den Hoogen Commissaris welke het in zyn vermogen zal zyn te verlenen.

En nademaal Commissarissen zullen worden aangesteld om te wonen op of nabij de Dorpen van ieder der groote Kaffer stammen, worden de handelaars uitgenoodigd naar de nabylheid van de Commissarissen of de Zendingen stationen, want in den aanvang zal geen handelen in eenig ander deel van Kafferland worden toegelaten, of tot het grondgebied zal zyn veldeld in grachtchappen, steden, en dorpen, en eene telling der bevolking zal hebben plaats gehad. Die handelaars zullen hun recht van locatie aldaar van Hare Majesteit houden.

De handelaars worden uitgenoodigd te handelen in gom, en daar het een zaak van aanbelling is om Kaffers het gebruik van geld te leeren, en zich te kleeden, recomendeert de Hooge Commissaris dat artikelen van nuttigheid, kleeding, landbouw gereedschap, enz. worden gebragt voor handel, en geen souteryen en bogt van kraken, enz. Iedere handelaar zal jaarlyks eene licentie moet uittreken van Hare Majesteits Hooge Commissaris van £50, onder voorwaarden welke bekend zullen gemaakt worden. De aanwending der sommen dus byeen gebragt, zal worden gevestigd in eene commissie om te worden aangewend tot verbetering van de wegen.

En wordt by deze bekend gemaakt en verklaard, dat alle kamprogeus, hoegenaamd, en ieder persoon met een soedant, onderhevig is aan krygsnet voor alle mindere overtredingen: voor zwaardere overtredingen is de Acte William IV, voor het straffen van alle misdaden gepleegd door Britsche onderdanen buiten de Koloniale grenzen, eene ruime voorziening.

En wordt bekend gemaakt aan alle handelaars en anderen dat de invoer van buskruid of vuurwapen niet alleen de herroeping der licentie zal te weeg brengen, maar mede de uittreking uit "Britsch Kafferaria," en geheele verbod van verkaring van goederen.

Deze zyn de Schytsen van de conditiën waarop de Handelaars worden uitgenoodigd.

De invoer van sterke dranken is verboden. Alle Personen die kennis van den landbouw hebben, worden uitgenoodigd de Kaffers daarin te onderwyzen, na het bekomen van eene schriftelyke autorizatie van den Hoogen Commissaris, maar Settlers om te cultiveren voor hun eigen rekening, worden verboden daar geen land zal worden verleend, noch eenige locatie anders dan voormeld, worden toegestaan.

GOD BEWARE DE KONINGIN!

3. And be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the governor of this colony, by any proclamation to be by him issued for that purpose, and published in the Government Gazette, on the passing of this Ordinance, and thereafter from time to time as occasion may seem to him to require, to define, fix, and appoint the local limits of the territory, which shall be comprehended and included in any of the aforesaid districts, whether in the first section mentioned or such as shall hereafter be created, and within which the resident magistrate for such district shall have and exercise jurisdiction and authority; And whenever the said governor shall deem it to be inexpedient or unnecessary that any of the said courts shall continue to be holden for and within any of the districts aforesaid, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful for the said governor by any proclamation to be by him issued for that purpose, and published as aforesaid, to abolish such court and the office of resident magistrate for such district, as also to annex any such district or any part thereof, to any other district or districts. And every district, or part thereof, which shall be so annexed as aforesaid, to any other district shall thereby become and be within and subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the resident magistrate for the district to which it shall be so annexed. And whenever any court shall be erected under or by virtue of the power and authority in that behalf in the second section of this ordinance mentioned, and the district assigned for the exercise of the jurisdiction of such court shall comprise territory which was before them, either wholly or in part within the jurisdiction of some other court or courts of resident magistrate, then and thereupon such territory shall wholly cease to be within or subject to the jurisdiction of such other court or courts.

4. And be it enacted, that whenever the said governor shall, by any proclamation to be by him issued for that purpose, repeal any such proclamation, by which the court of, and the Office of the resident magistrate for any district was abolished, thereupon and by virtue of such repeal, such court and such office shall of new become and be created, constituted, and established in like manner, and to all intents and purposes, as if the same had never been abolished in manner aforesaid.

5. And be it enacted, that every person who shall hereafter be appointed the resident magistrate for any district, shall be so appointed by the governor of this colony, under the great seal thereof: And that it shall and may be lawful for the said governor, when and so often as by reason of the death, sickness, absence, or other incapacity of any resident magistrate, it shall appear to him to be necessary or expedient so to do, to appoint some fit and proper person to act as, in the stead of such resident magistrate, within, either the whole, or any part of his district. And all deeds, acts, matters, and things, which shall be done and performed by or before any person so to be appointed to act as aforesaid, under and by virtue of such his appointment, shall be as legal, valid, and effectual, to all intents and purposes, as if the same had been done and performed by or before the resident magistrate as, and instead of whom, such person shall have been so appointed to act. Provided always, that every resident magistrate of every district existing at the time of the commencement and taking effect of this ordinance, and of which the local limits shall not be changed but continued by any such proclamation as is in the third section aforesaid mentioned, need not be appointed anew, and shall, without any such fresh appointment, be deemed and taken to be the resident magistrate of such district.

6. And be it enacted, that every person who shall in manner aforesaid be appointed to be a resident magistrate, or to act as and in the stead of any resident magistrate, shall before exercising any of the functions of his office, take the oath of office set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked A, before the chief justice or any of the judges of the supreme court, or before the clerk of the peace, or any justice of the peace, for the district, for or in which such person is appointed to act, who are hereby empowered and required to administer the same. And every such person shall, so soon as he shall have duly taken the oaths aforesaid, cause such oaths to be recorded, and shall subscribe the same, in the record book of the proceedings of his court, or of the court in which he shall so have been appointed to act, as the case may be.

7. And be it enacted, that the courts of the resident magistrate aforesaid, shall be respectively courts of record, and that the pleadings and proceedings of the said courts shall be carried on, and the sentences, decrees, judgments, and orders thereof, pronounced and declared in open court, and not otherwise; and that the several pleadings and proceedings of the said courts shall be in the English language, and that in all criminal cases the witnesses against and for any accused person or persons shall deliver their evidence viva voce, and in open court.

8. And be it enacted, that the resident magistrates of the colony shall, respectively, have jurisdiction in all civil cases (except as hereinafter excepted) brought or instituted against any person residing within the districts for which the said magistrates shall be respectively appointed, wherein the sum or matter in dispute, whether in balance of account or otherwise, shall not exceed the amount of twenty pounds sterling.—Provided always that no such magistrate shall have jurisdiction in, or cognizance of, any action or suit for any malicious prosecution, or wherein the title to any lands or tenements, or any fee duty or office is in question, or wherein the validity of any will or after testamentary instrument is disputed, or whereby rights in future can be bound, nor shall any resident magistrate have jurisdiction to award damages on account of any slander, whether verbal or written, or on account of any assault or personal injury, or on account of breach of promise of marriage, seduction or adultery, any sum exceeding £10. Provided, always, that any such magistrate may, in the course of a suit or action for adultery, or for the amount or value of necessities lawfully supplied to the wife of any person, determine upon the fact of marriage, and may, in the course of any suit or action for the amount or value of maintenance lawfully supplied to the child, legitimate or illegitimate, of any person, determine upon the question of filiation, so far as may be necessary for the decision of the said cases, respectively, without thereby binding, or being deemed or taken to bind, rights in future. Provided, however, that the evidence in every such case as aforesaid shall be recorded by the magistrate, and that the same may be put in as proof by either plaintiff or defendant in any subsequent suit or action in the same court between the same parties, in which the matters in question in the former suit or action, shall again come into dispute. And any person under the age of 21 years may sue for wages, or upon any contract made with such person, or for any personal injury done to such person, in the same manner if he were of full age.

9. And be it enacted, that the resident magistrate aforesaid shall in their respective courts have jurisdiction in all actions of ejectment against the occupier of any Lands, Tenements, or Premises, situated within the local limits of their respective Districts, at the suit of any persons (or of his lawful attorney, administrator, or executor,) under whom such occupier has holden or occupied the same in virtue of any lease, contract, or agreement; or at the suit of any person (or of his lawful attorney, administrator, or executor,) whose name is enregistered in the land register of the colony as the proprietor of any such lands, tenements, or premises, against the tenant or occupier thereof;—or at the suit of any tenant (or his lawful attorney, administrator, or executor) holding a subsisting written lease of any such lands, tenements, or premises, under the person whose name is enregistered in the land register of the colony as the proprietor thereof, against any occupier of such lands, tenements, or premises, whose right, or alleged right, of occupation is not derived from the person whose name is enregistered as aforesaid as the proprietor thereof. Provided always, that the title to any of the lands, tenements, or premises aforesaid, shall not in any such action be in question, but only the right of occupation. And provided also, that it shall not be shown by the defendant that the right to the occupation of any such lands, tenements, or premises, during the term or period as to which the right of occupation shall be in dispute, is to him of the clear value of £40 sterling or upwards.

10. And be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for any person being a party to any civil suit or action depending in the court of any resident magistrate within this colony, to appeal against any final judgment, decree, or sentence of such court, or against any rule or order made by such court in any such civil suit or action, having the effect of a final or definitive sentence, where such court shall be that of the resident magistrate for Cape Town, Wynberg, or Malmesbury, to the supreme court, and where such court shall be that of the resident magistrate for any other district, to the supreme court, or to the circuit court which shall next be holden for such district; and in every case in which any such appeal shall be made, the resident magistrates shall, and are hereby respectively empowered either to direct that the judgment, decree, rule, order, or sentence, appealed from, shall be carried into execution, or that the execution thereof shall be suspended pending such appeal, as to the said resident magistrates respectively may in each case appear to be most consistent with real and substantial justice. And in case any resident magistrate shall direct any such judgment, decree, rule, order, or sentence, to be carried into execution, the person in whose favor the same shall have been given shall, before the execution thereof, enter into good and sufficient security, to be approved by such resident magistrate, for the due performance of such judgment, or order, as the court to which such appeal shall be made, shall think fit to make thereupon. And in case any resident magistrate shall direct the execution of any such judgment, decree, rule, order or sentence, to be suspended pending such appeal, such resident magistrate shall and may, whenever it shall appear to him necessary and consistent with real and substantial justice so to do, require the person against whom such judgment, decree, rule, order, or sentence shall have been given, before any order for the suspension of any such execution is made, to enter into good and sufficient security, to be approved by such resident magistrate, for the due performance of such judgment or order, as the court, to which such appeal shall be made, shall think fit to make thereupon: Provided always, that every such appeal shall be taken, entered, and made within such time and in such manner as is directed and required by the rules and regulations, for the time being, of the circuit courts of resident magistrates.

11. And be it enacted, that every such court as aforesaid, may make orders concerning the time or times, and by what instalments, any debt or damages, and costs for which judgment shall be obtained in the said court, shall be paid,—and all such monies shall be paid into court, unless the said court shall otherwise direct. And every such order shall be in the form in that behalf in the rules and regulations of the courts of resident magistrates provided.

12. And be it enacted, that whenever any court shall give judgment for the payment of money, the amount shall be recoverable,—in case of default or failure of payment thereof forthwith, or at the time or times, and in the manner, ordered by the said court,—by execution against the goods and chattels of the party against whom such judgment shall be given; which execution shall be sued out and executed in manner and form as, in that behalf, directed by the rules and regulations aforesaid.

13. And be it enacted, that whenever there shall not be found within the district of the resident magistrate, from or out of whose court such execution shall issue, sufficient goods of such person from which the debts, damages, or costs can be levied by virtue of any writ or warrant issued by such magistrate, such writ or warrant when endorsed by the resident magistrate of any other district, (and every resident magistrate is hereby authorised and required, on production to him of any such writ or warrant, to endorse the same,) shall have the like force and effect, and may be executed within the district of the magistrate by whom it has been endorsed, as if it had been issued by such last mentioned magistrate for execution of any sentence or judgment of his court.

14. And be it enacted, that whenever any such court as aforesaid shall have made any order for the payment of any sum of money, by instalments, execution upon the judgment recovered against the debtor shall not issue until after default made in the payment of some instalment according to such order, and execution or successive executions may then issue for the whole of the said sum of money and costs then remaining unpaid, or for such portion thereof as the court shall order, either at the time of making the original order, or at any subsequent sitting of the court.

15. And be it enacted, that in respect of any process of execution issued against any person out of any such court as aforesaid, the wearing apparel or bedding of such person or his family, and the tools and implements of his trade, to the value of five pounds, shall be protected from seizure, and shall not be attached or sold.

16. And be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for any party who has obtained any unsatisfied judgment in any such court as aforesaid, for the payment of any debt or damages or costs, to obtain a summons from the said court, which summons shall be in the form in that behalf by the rules and regulations of the courts of resident magistrates provided, requiring the person to whom it is directed to appear at the time in the said summons specified, to answer such things as are named in the said summons, and if he shall appear in pursuance of such summons, he may be examined upon oath, touching his estate and effects, and the manner and circumstances under which he contracted the debt or increased the damages or liability which is the subject of the action, in which judgment has been obtained against him, and as to the means and expectation he then had, and as to the property and means he still hath of discharging the said debt or damages or liability, and as to the disposal he may have made of any of his property, and the person obtaining such summons as aforesaid, and all other witnesses whom the court shall think requisite, may be examined upon oath, touching the inquiries authorised to be made as aforesaid, and the costs of such summons and of all proceedings thereon, shall be in the discretion of the said court.

17. And be it enacted, that if any person being lawfully summoned as aforesaid, shall not, at the time and place appointed in such summons, come before the said court, (having no lawful impediment at such time made known to and allowed by such court,) it shall be lawful for such court to issue a warrant, in the form in that behalf by the rules and regulations aforesaid provided, authorising the messenger of such court or any officer of the law proper for the execution of criminal warrants, to apprehend such person, and forthwith bring him before such court, or to lodge him in prison, therein to be detained until the time which such court may appoint or shall have appointed for enquiring into the matters in the summons aforesaid named, at which time such person shall, by the keeper of such prison, be brought before such court. Provided always, that any person so apprehended may be liberated by the resident magistrate, who shall have granted such warrant, upon the undertaking of such person, with or without a surety or sureties, as such magistrate shall think fit, to appear before the court aforesaid, at such time or place as such resident magistrate shall appoint.

18. And be it enacted, that if any person so summoned as aforesaid, and attending in pursuance of such summons, or brought before the court by virtue of any such warrant of apprehension as aforesaid, shall refuse to be sworn, or refuse to disclose the matters aforesaid, or any of them, or if it shall be proved to such court, either by the examination of the party or any other vidence, that such party, if a defendant, wilfully contracted the debt or liability which is the subject of the action, in which judgment has been obtained, without having had at the time a reasonable expectation of being able to pay or discharge the same, or shall have made or caused to be made, any gift, delivery, or transfer of any property, or have charged or removed the same, with intent to defraud his creditors or any of them, or if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the said court, that such person has then, or has had since the judgment obtained against him, sufficient means and ability to pay the debts or damages or costs recovered against him, either altogether or by any instalment or instalments which the said court shall have ordered, and if he shall refuse or neglect to pay the same as shall have been so ordered, or as shall be ordered, pursuant to the power in the next succeeding section provided, it shall be lawful for the said court if it shall think fit, to commit such person to prison, there to be kept with or without hard labor, for any period not exceeding one month, and such commitment shall be by a warrant in the form in that behalf in the rules and regulations aforesaid, set forth.

19. And be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for any such court as aforesaid, before which any such person as aforesaid shall appear or be brought, if such court shall think fit, whether or not it shall order the committal of such person, to rescind or alter any order that shall have been previously made against such person for the payment, by instalment or otherwise, of any debt or damage or costs recovered, and to make any further or other order, either for the payment of the whole of such debt or damages or costs forthwith, or by any instalments, or in any other manner, as such court shall think reasonable and just.

20. And be it enacted, that in every case where the defendant shall personally appear at the trial of the same, the court, at the time of the hearing of the cause, shall have the same power and authority of examining the defendant and the plaintiff and other parties, touching the several things hereinbefore mentioned, and of committing the defendant to prison, and of making an order for payment by instalments, or in any other manner, as such court might have and exercise under the provisions hereinbefore contained, in case the said defendant had appeared in pursuance to such a summons as is in the 16th section aforesaid mentioned.

21. And be it enacted, that no imprisonment under any of the preceding sections of this Ordinance, shall in anywise operate as a satisfaction or extinguishment of the debt or other cause of action on which a judgment has been obtained, or protect the defendant from being anew summoned and imprisoned for any new fraud or other default, rendering him liable to be imprisoned under any of the said sections, or deprive the plaintiff of any right to take out execution against the goods and chattels of the defendant, in the same manner as if such imprisonment had not taken place.

22. And be it enacted, that any person imprisoned under any of the said preceding sections of this Ordinance, who shall have paid or satisfied the debt or demand or the instalment thereof payable, and costs remaining due at the time of the warrant of committal being issued, and all subsequent costs, shall be discharged out of custody, upon the certificate of such payment or satisfaction, signed by the clerk of the court by which such warrant was issued.

23. And be it enacted, that if it shall, at any time, be made to appear to the satisfaction of any such court as aforesaid, by the oath of any person or persons, or otherwise, that any defendant is unable, from sickness, or other sufficient cause, to pay or discharge the debt or damages or costs recovered against him, or any instalment thereof, ordered to be paid as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such court, in its discretion, and when it shall deem such cause or disability to be but temporary, to suspend or stay any judgment, order, or execution, given, made, or issued in such action, for such time and on such terms as the said court shall think fit, and so from time to time, until it shall appear by the like proof as aforesaid that such temporary cause or disability has ceased.

24. And be it enacted, that when and as often as a judgment of any such court as aforesaid shall have been obtained for the amount of any rent of any house or premises held by the defendant from or under the plaintiff, due and in arrear, and it shall appear by the messenger's return to any process of execution issued upon the said judgment, that no goods or chattels have been found wherewith to satisfy the debt and costs mentioned in such process, or any part thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the clerk of the said court, and he is hereby required, upon the application of the said plaintiff, to issue and deliver to the messenger of the said court, a summons for the said defendant, calling upon him to appear and show why he should not be condemned to deliver up to the said plaintiff possession of the house or premises by the said defendant held from the said plaintiff, and in respect of which the rent recovered as aforesaid, shall be due and owing, which summons shall, in substance and effect, be in the form in that behalf in the rules and regulations of the court of resident magistrates contained: Provided always, that no claim or demand for the delivery up of such possession shall be made under or by virtue of the provisions of this section in any case in which the lease or contract of hire, or the time or term thereof yet to come and unexpired, shall be, respectively, of a nature or value which would exclude the jurisdiction of any court of resident magistrate, under or by virtue of the 9th section of this Ordinance.

25. And be it enacted, that upon the hearing of every case in which such delivery up of possession as aforesaid shall be claimed, it shall and may be lawful for the court of resident magistrate in which the same shall be pending, upon proof of such return as aforesaid to the process of execution, to condemn the said defendant to deliver up such possession, but without costs; and thereupon such court shall, upon the application of the plaintiff, grant a warrant, authorising and requiring the messenger of the said court to put the plaintiff into possession of the house or premises in question; which warrant shall, in substance and effect, be in the form in that behalf in the rules and regulations of the courts of resident magistrates contained, and which warrant it shall and may be lawful for such messenger to execute as against the defendant, and all persons claiming from, through, or under him; and thereupon every previous contract or agreement for the hire or use of such house or premises by the said defendant from the said plaintiff, shall become and be wholly evicted, avoided, and from thenceforth absolutely determined. Provided always, that the execution of such warrant shall not operate as a satisfaction or extinguishment of the rent recovered by such judgment, nor shall it protect the defendant from being imprisoned for any fraud or default rendering him liable to be imprisoned, under any of the previous provisions of this Ordinance.

26. And be it enacted, that if it shall be made to appear to any such court as aforesaid, at the time of the hearing of any action brought for the recovery of any such rent as aforesaid, or at the time appointed for the hearing of any such summons as is in the 16th section of this Ordinance mentioned, either by the admission of the defendant, or otherwise, and whether such defendant shall personally appear at any such hearing or not, that there are no goods and chattels to be found against which to execute any process of execution, the said court may then, and until the issue of any such process or any fresh summons, condemn the defendant to deliver up possession as aforesaid, in like manner as if he had been duly summoned in manner and form as in the 24th section of this Ordinance mentioned.

27. And be it enacted, that when and as often as the landlord of any house or premises, situate within the jurisdiction of any resident magistrate, shall make an oath before such magistrate, that an amount of rent, not exceeding the amount to which the jurisdiction of the court of such resident magistrate is limited, is due and in arrear in regard to the said house or premises, and that the said rent has been demanded for the space of seven days and upwards, or, if not so demanded, that the deponent believes that the tenant is about to remove the goods and chattels therein, and upon the said premises, in order to defeat and avoid the payment of the rent so due and in arrear, and shall enter into security, together with some one as his surety, to be approved of by the said magistrate, to prosecute in such court as aforesaid, if need be, a suit for the recovery of such rent so in arrear, and also to pay and satisfy all damages, costs, and charges which the tenant of such house or premises, or any other person may sustain or incur, by reason of, or in connection with the distress or seizure hereinafter-mentioned, if the said landlord shall fail to prove that the rent aforesaid is really due and in arrear, then, and in that case, it shall and may be lawful for such magistrate, to issue an order in writing, directed to the messenger of the said court, authorising and requiring him to seize and arrest, if need be, so much of the goods and chattels in or upon the place or premises in question, and by law distrainable for rent in arrear, as may be sufficient to satisfy the amount of rent due and in arrear, together with the costs and charges of the action aforesaid, to be afterwards, if need be, instituted for the recovery thereof; and such affidavit, security, and order, respectively, shall, in substance and effect, be in the forms in the rules and regulations of the courts of resident magistrates in that behalf contained. Provided always, that whenever any such order shall be applied for at the time of suing out, or after having sued out, a summons of the court aforesaid, for the recovery of the rent in respect of which such order shall be needed, the form of such security as aforesaid, shall be modified accordingly; and provided also, that in case of failure made in fulfilling any of the stipulations or conditions contained in such security, then any order made in reference to the same, and every thing done under the same shall be, ab initio, null and void, and the landlord and his surety shall be answerable for any damage, loss, or injury, which the tenant aforesaid, or any other person may have sustained by reason or in consequence of such order.

28. And be it enacted, that the messenger aforesaid, in the execution of any such order as aforesaid, shall repair to the house or premises in question within such space of time as he would be bound to repair to the same were such house or premises the house of a defendant against whom such order was process of execution on a judgment or sentence of the court, and shall demand payment of the amount of the rent mentioned in such order, and failing to obtain such payment, he shall require that so much moveable property, so distrainable as aforesaid, be pointed out as such messenger may deem sufficient to satisfy the exigency of such order, and if such requisition be complied with, the said messenger shall make an inventory of such property, and lay an attachment thereon; but if no such property be pointed out, the said messenger shall attach, under inventory, as much of such property as he himself may deem sufficient for the purpose aforesaid.

29. And be it enacted, that the said messenger shall deliver a copy of the said inventory, signed by himself, to the tenant, or, if he be not present or will not accept it, shall leave the same upon the premises; and such inventory shall have subjoined thereto a notice which shall, in substance and effect, be conformable to the form in that behalf in the rules and regulations of courts of resident magistrates contained.

30. And be it enacted, that when any tenant, in regard to whose rent in arrear goods and chattels have been arrested under any such warrant as aforesaid, will undertake in writing, together with some other person, to be approved by such messenger, as his surety, that the said goods and chattels shall be forthcoming to answer process of execution in any action for recovery of the rent alleged to be in arrear, if the landlord shall not be sooner satisfied in respect to the said rent, then the said messenger shall leave the said goods and chattels upon the premises where the same were found; and such undertaking as aforesaid shall, in substance and effect, be in the form in that behalf in the rules and regulations of the courts of resident magistrates contained.

31. And be it enacted, that, if the tenant will not undertake, in manner and form as in the last preceding section mentioned, then the messenger aforesaid shall either remove the goods and chattels arrested, to some convenient place of security; or, should it be inconvenient to remove the same, shall leave them upon the premises, in the charge and custody of some person for him, to await the issue of the proceedings taken or to be taken in regard to the rent due and in arrear.

32. And be it enacted, that if any person shall dispose of, conceal, embezzle, or receive any moveable property attached under and by virtue of any such order as aforesaid, knowing the same to have been attached, and with intent to defeat the said attachment, such person shall, on conviction thereof, be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding three months.

33. And be it enacted, that where any person whose goods and chattels have been attached under any such order as aforesaid, shall admit the amount of rent due and in arrear, and shall be minded, in order to save expense, to consent to an immediate sale thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the resident magistrate by whom the said order was issued, upon such consent being certified to him, both in person and in writing, to grant another order, directed to the messenger aforesaid, authorising and requiring him to sell, on some convenient day, and at some convenient place, to be specified in such order, the said goods and chattels, or so much thereof as shall be necessary to satisfy the amount of rent due and in arrear, together with the charges of the said sale, which shall be the same as would by law be payable if such sale were a sale under process of execution of the resident magistrate's court, and such order shall, in substance and effect, be in the form in that behalf in the rules and regulations of the courts of resident magistrates contained, and every such sale may be made by the said messenger without taking out any licence as an auctioneer, and shall be made publicly, and for ready money, to the highest bidder; and a notice of every such sale shall be affixed at the door of the court-house of the said resident magistrate, and at, or as near as may be to, the place where the sale is actually to take place, for seven days at least

before the day appointed for such sale: Provided always, that it shall be competent for the tenant at any time before such sale, to pay the amount of rent due and in arrear, together with a further sum of

for the costs and charges of such messenger about such seizure and arrest as aforesaid; and thereupon the goods and chattels arrested, shall be restored.

34. And be it enacted, that if any action shall, after the commencement and taking effect of this Ordinance, be commenced in the supreme or any circuit court, for any cause other than those in the next succeeding section mentioned, for which an action might have been commenced in any court of resident magistrate, and judgment shall be given in favor of the plaintiff for a sum less than twenty pounds if the said action is founded on contract, or less than five pounds if it be founded on any tort or wrongful act or omission, such plaintiff shall not recover any costs exceeding the estimated amount of the costs which he would, in the same case, have recovered in the court of resident magistrate, had he laid the said action therein; and if judgment shall be given in favor of the defendant, he shall be entitled to his costs as between attorney and client, unless, in either case, the court trying the action shall find, and place upon record, that the said action, from its nature or circumstances, was fit to be brought in such supreme or circuit court.

35. And be it enacted that, in all cases in which the plaintiff resides in a district other than that in which the defendant resides, and no part of the cause of action arose in the last-mentioned district, and in all cases where a claim or demand is founded upon any notarial or other mortgage bond, or bill of exchange, or promissory note, of which the lawful holder, for valuable consideration, does not reside in the same district with the defendant; and in all cases in which any action shall be brought against any officer of any such court, for or on account of anything relating to his conduct in his office, the plaintiff may, at his election, bring his action in the supreme or any circuit court, although some court of resident magistrate might have had jurisdiction, and the question of the costs in such action shall be judged of by the court in which it is brought, in like manner as if it could not have been brought in any other: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or taken to limit or affect the certain proceedings hereinafter, in the 50th section of this Ordinance, authorised.

36. And be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for every court of resident magistrate to admit and enrol as agents in the said court, so many persons of full age, and of good fame and character, as shall be desirous to be so enrolled, and shall pay for such enrolment, if in the court of the resident magistrate for Cape Town and the district thereof and the Cape district, or in the court of the resident magistrate for Albany, the sum of £20, and if in any other court of resident magistrate, the sum of £10, to be paid by such magistrate into the colonial treasury. Provided, that every agent enrolled in any one court shall be entitled to be enrolled in any other, without the payment of any further sum.

37. And be it enacted, that every such court shall possess and exercise over or in respect of such agents so enrolled, the like powers and authorities as the supreme court possesses and exercises over or in respect of the attorneys thereof, and may summarily enquire into any charge of misconduct preferred against any agent, and should the same prove to be well founded, may remove such agent from the roll of agents, either absolutely or conditionally, or may suspend such agent from practice in the said court, for a limited period, in all cases in which, under similar circumstances, arising in or out of proceedings in the said supreme court any attorney thereof might lawfully have been, by the said court, proceeded against and punished in the same manner. Provided always, that every resident magistrate shall record the evidence upon which he shall have ordered any such removal or suspension, and that any agent who shall conceive himself to be aggrieved by any such removal or suspension, may bring the same in review before the supreme court or any circuit court for the district in which such removal or suspension was ordered, which supreme or circuit court may set aside the same; and when and as often as any such removal or suspension shall be set aside, no costs shall be awarded against the magistrate ordering the same, in case he shall appear to have acted bona fide, and upon reasonable and probable cause. Provided always, that although such removal or suspension shall not be brought in review, the magistrate so removing or suspending any agent shall nevertheless transmit to the registrar of the supreme court a certified record of the evidence upon which the said removal or suspension was grounded, and it shall be lawful for the said court, in case it should deem such removal or suspension one fit to be rescinded or reconsidered, to make such order, in the matter, as shall to justice appertain.

38. And be it enacted, that no agent shall (except as hereinafter excepted) recover from his client or employer, for or on account of the work and labor by such agent expended in and about the prosecuting or defending of any civil action or proceeding in any court of resident magistrate, any greater sum than seven shillings and six pence in liquid cases, or ten shillings and six pence in all other cases and proceedings. Provided, always, that nothing herein contained shall be taken or construed so as to render invalid any agreement in writing signed by the party sought to be charged, or his lawful agent, whereby any greater or lesser sum than either of the sums aforesaid, shall be stipulated or undertaken to be paid.

39. And be it enacted, that the party, whether plaintiff or defendant, in whose favor any judgment of any court of resident magistrate in any civil action or proceeding, shall be pronounced, shall, subject to the conditions hereinafter mentioned, be allowed, in the taxation of costs against the opposite party, the expense of the agent, if any, employed by the parties successful, according to the scale aforesaid of seven shillings and six pence in liquid, and ten shillings and six pence in other cases. Provided always, that no sum whatever shall unless, by leave of the court, be allowed, to any plaintiff when the sum recovered shall be under five pounds, nor to any defendant when the sum demanded shall be under five pounds. And provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to deprive any such court of any discretionary power which it may now by law possess to refuse costs to any suitor to whom it would, in the judgment of such court, be inequitable to allow the same.

40. And be it enacted, that any advocate of the supreme court may appear and plead in any civil action or proceeding depending in any court of resident magistrate. Provided always, that nothing shall be allowed to any plaintiff, for the expense of such advocate, when the sum recovered shall be under ten pounds, nor to any defendant, when the sum demanded was under ten pounds, nor shall the expense of such advocate be allowed in any case, without the leave of the said court of resident magistrate; which leave such magistrate shall only grant in case he be of opinion that the action or proceeding was of such a nature as to render the employment of an advocate reasonable and proper. And provided also that the expense of such advocate shall not be allowed unless he shall have been instructed by some such agent as aforesaid, whose expense shall also be allowed. And provided, farther, that the sum to be allowed for the expense of an advocate in any taxation of costs between party and party, shall never be more or less than one pound and one shilling.

41. And be it enacted that every attorney duly admitted to practise in the supreme or any civil court shall be entitled to practise in any court of resident magistrate, without payment or enrolment, but shall be considered, in the taxation of costs, and in other respects, as enrolled agents.

42. And be it enacted, that the resident magistrate of the colony shall, respectively, have jurisdiction, without appeal, in all cases of crimes and offences wherein any person may be accused of any crime or offence not punishable by death, transportation, or banishment from this colony. Provided always that it shall not be lawful for any such resident magistrate to punish any offender in any higher or more severe manner than by fine not exceeding the amount of ten pounds sterling, or by imprisonment with or without hard labor for a period not exceeding three months, or by whipping privately in prison not exceeding thirty-six lashes. Provided, also, that any offender may be punished by both such fine and such imprisonment, or by both such imprisonment and such whipping, but the offender shall not for the same offence be punished both by fine and by whipping. And provided further, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to prevent any resident magistrate from inflicting any other or greater punishment than the punishment aforesaid, when and as often as he is or shall be authorized so to do by any special law or ordinance now in force or hereinafter to be enacted.

43. And be it enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any court of resident magistrate, in any case, to sentence or adjudge any female to receive personal correction, or to hard labor on any road, street, or public place.

44. And be it enacted, that no resident magistrate shall have jurisdiction, except as is hereinafter excepted and provided, in any case of any crime or offence committed without the local limits of the district within which such magistrate shall have been appointed to exercise jurisdiction: Provided always, that he shall have jurisdiction in respect to crimes not punishable by death, transportation, or banishment, committed within such district: And provided also, that when any crime or offence shall be committed on the boundary or boundaries of two or more districts, or within the distance of two miles of any such boundary or boundaries, or shall be begun in one district and completed in another, every such crime or offence may be dealt with, inquired of, tried, and determined and punished in any of the said districts, in the same manner as if it had been actually and wholly committed therein: And provided also, that where any crime or offence shall be committed on any person, or on, or in respect of any property in or upon any cart, wagon, coach, or other carriage whatever, employed on any journey through or within any part of this colony, or on board any vessel whatever employed on any voyage upon any river within or forming the boundary of any part of this colony, such crime or offence may be dealt with, inquired of, tried, determined, and punished in any district through any part whereof, or on, or within the distance of two miles of the boundary whereof such coach, wagon, cart, or carriage, or vessel, shall have passed in the course of the journey or voyage during which such crime or offence shall have been committed, in the same manner as if it had been actually and wholly committed in such district.

45. And be it enacted, that every person, upon trial on any criminal charge in any court of resident magistrate, shall be entitled to make his defence by counsel, or by attorney, or by any such agent as is hereinbefore in the 34th section of this ordinance mentioned. Provided, however, that nothing herein contained, shall extend to alter or affect the law heretofore in force, regarding the admission of legal advisers upon any preparatory examination.

46. And be it enacted, that every resident magistrate shall prepare and transmit to such officer as the governor aforesaid shall appoint for the purpose of receiving the same, a report of every criminal case adjudicated upon by such magistrate under and by virtue of his summary jurisdiction, showing the name and occupation of the party accused, the name and occupation of the complainant, the crime or offence charged, the judgment of the court, and, in cases of conviction, the sentence pronounced.

47. And be it enacted, that when and as often as any court of resident magistrate shall sentence any person, upon conviction, to be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for any period exceeding one month, or to pay any fine exceeding £5, or to receive any number of lashes exceeding twelve, the magistrate pronouncing such sentence shall forward to the registrar of the supreme court, not later than one week next after the determination of the case, the record of the proceedings in the case, together with such remarks if any as he may desire to append. And such registrar shall, with all convenient speed, lay the same before one of the judges of the said supreme court, in chambers, for his consideration,—and in case the said proceedings shall appear to such judge to be in accordance with real and substantial justice, he shall endorse his certificate to that effect upon the said proceedings, and the said proceedings shall then, by the registrar aforesaid, be returned to the resident magistrate by whom the same shall have been transmitted.

48. And be it enacted, that if, upon considering the proceedings aforesaid, it shall appear to the judge in chambers, that the same are not in accordance with real and substantial justice, or that doubts exist whether or not they are in such accordance,—then it shall and may be lawful for such judge to lay the same before the supreme court for its consideration, and such court, at any sitting thereof, shall have full power, jurisdiction, and authority to affirm, alter, or reverse the sentence of the resident magistrate's court, and to set aside or correct the proceedings thereof, and when it shall appear necessary or proper so to do, to remit such case to the said resident magistrate's court, with such instructions relative to the further proceedings to be had in such case as such supreme court shall think fit, and to make such order touching the suspension of the execution of any sentence against the person convicted, or the admitting such person to bail, or, generally, any matter or thing connected with such person or the proceedings in regard to him, as to such court shall seem calculated to promote the ends of real and substantial justice. Provided also, that if, in any case, such court should desire to have any question of law or fact, arising in any such case, argued at the bar, such court may direct the same to be argued by the attorney-general of the colony, and by such other advocate as such court may appoint.

49. And be it enacted, that in actions and proceedings before the respective courts of resident magistrates, whether civil or criminal, it shall and may be lawful for such court, before or at the hearing, to amend any plaint or summons, or other record, in regard to the misdescription therein of any written instrument or paper writing relating to such action or proceeding, or of any contract, or any other particular or particulars: Provided that no such amendment be made, except in some particular which, in the judgment of such court, is not material to the merits of the case, and by which the opposite party cannot have been prejudiced in the conduct of his action, prosecution, or defence. Provided also, that such amendment shall be made upon the payment of such costs to the other party, if any, as such court shall judge reasonable. And provided further, that no misnomer in regard to the name of any person or any plate shall vitiate any summons or other writ or proceeding, in case the place or person be therein described so as to be commonly known.

50. And be it enacted, that whenever any person whom it shall be necessary to examine as a witness in the course of any preparatory examination, or at the trial of any cause, whether civil or criminal, before any of the resident magistrates aforesaid, shall reside or be for the time within any other district than that of such magistrate, then and in every such case, it shall and may be lawful for the said magistrate, to issue a summons for the attendance of such person before him, in the like form as is by law provided in respect of summonses to be issued in the like cases, for procuring or compelling the attendance of witnesses residing or being within the district of the resident magistrate issuing the same: And every such summons, when endorsed by the resident magistrate or any justice of the peace for any other district, or by the field-cornet of the field-cornetcy within which the person so to be summoned resides for the time, or shall be found (who are hereby respectively authorised and required on production to them of any such summons to endorse the same,) and being duly served and returned, by any person authorised to serve such a summons in either of the said districts, shall have in law the like effect in requiring the attendance of such person as aforesaid, before the magistrate by whom the same was issued, and in rendering such person, if he shall fail so to attend, liable to every penalty provided for the non-attendance of persons summoned as witnesses, as if such person at the time when such summons was served, had resided or been within the district of such last-mentioned magistrate.

51. And be it enacted, that if any claim shall be made to, or in respect of any goods or chattles taken in execution under the process, whether civil or criminal, of any court of resident magistrate, or to or in respect of the proceeds or value thereof, by any person not being the party against whom such process was issued, it shall and may be lawful for the court issuing such process, upon the application of the messenger, as well before as after any action brought against him, to issue a summons calling before the court as well the party suing at such process as the party making such claim, which summons shall be in that behalf in the rules and regulations of the court of resident magistrates contained, and therefore any action which may have been brought in any other court, supreme or inferior, in respect of such claim, shall be stayed, and the court in which such action shall have been brought, or if the supreme court, any judge thereof, on proof of the issue of such summons, and that the goods and chattles in question were so taken in execution, may order the party bringing such action to pay the costs of all proceedings had upon such action, after the issue of the summons aforesaid, and the court of resident magistrate, issuing such summons, shall adjudicate upon such claim, and make such order between the parties in respect thereof, and of the costs of the proceedings, as to such court shall seem just and lawful, and such order shall be deemed to be a judgment of such court, and shall be enforced in like manner as any other judgment.

52. And be it enacted, that if any person shall wilfully insult the resident magistrate, during his sitting in any such court, or any clerk or messenger or other officer of any such court, during his attendance therein; or while such magistrate, clerk, messenger, or other officer, shall be going to or returning from the said court, or shall wilfully interrupt the proceedings of such court, or otherwise misbehave in such court, it shall be lawful for any constable, or private person, by order of the said court to take such offender into custody, and to detain him until the rising of the court; and the resident magistrate shall be empowered, if he shall think fit, by warrant under his hand to commit any person so offending to prison, with or without hard labor, for any period not exceeding seven days, or to impose upon any such persons a fine not exceeding five pounds, for every such offence, and in default of payment thereof to commit the offender to prison with or without hard labor for any time not exceeding seven days, unless the said fine be sooner paid. But in any case, in which any such court shall commit or fine any person under the provisions of this section, for contempt of court, the resident magistrate shall without delay, (and if a country district by the next succeeding post,) transmit to the registrar of the supreme court, for the consideration of a judge in chamber, a statement, certified by such magistrate to be true and correct, of the grounds and reasons of his proceeding.

53. And be it enacted, that from and after the commencement and taking effect of this ordinance, the ordinances respectively intitled "ordinance of his honor the lieutenant-governor in council, for creating resident magistrates and clerks of the peace in certain districts and places in this colony," dated 19th day of December 1827, No. 33,— "ordinance of his honor the lieutenant-governor in council, for authorising the civil commissioner of the Cape district, to act within the district and residency of Simon's Town, and for establishing a board for the registration of marriages therein; and for repealing the proclamation of the 8th of April 1825, granting jurisdiction to the government residents at Algoa Bay (now Port Elizabeth,) and Port Frances, in certain criminal and civil cases," dated the 19th day of January 1828, No. 38,— "ordinance of his honor the lieutenant-governor in council, for establishing and regulating the court of the judge of police and resident magistrate for Cape Town and the district thereof, and the Cape district, and for other purposes," dated the 19th day of March 1828, No. 44,—save and except in so far as by the 17th section thereof, the messengers of the courts of the resident magistrates are authorised to sell by auction, goods taken in execution of the process of such courts;— "ordinance of his excellency the governor, for establishing boards for the registration of marriages at the Paarl and Port Elizabeth," dated the 29th day of July 1829, No. 63,— "ordinance of his excellency the governor in council, for extending the jurisdiction of resident magistrates in certain cases of ejectment," dated the 1st day of September 1829, No. 66,— "ordinance of his excellency the governor in council, for annexing the district of Port Elizabeth to the district of Uitenhage, and for defining and appointing the local limits within which the courts of the resident magistrates, and matrimonial courts, within this colony shall respectively have and exercise jurisdiction," dated the 6th day of February 1832, No. 89; save and except in so far as by the 4th and 5th sections thereof, provision is made touching and concerning the matrimonial courts of this colony:—ordinance No. 11, of 1836, entitled "ordinance for rendering valid acts done and duties performed by persons appointed to act as and for certain magistrate, and to empower the governor to appoint assistant magistrates,"—ordinance No. 1, of 1837, entitled "ordinance for erecting certain resident magistrate's courts within the eastern division of this colony, and for defining the jurisdiction thereof,"—ordinance No. 1, of 1839, entitled "ordinance for erecting certain resident magistrates courts in the western division of this colony, and for defining the jurisdiction thereof,"—ordinance No. , of 1847, entitled "ordinance for empowering the governor of this colony to establish courts of resident magistrates;" save and except in so far as any of the said ordinances enact, that certain acts, done previously to the passing thereof, shall be legal, valid and effectual; and save and except in so far as the said ordinances or any of them may repeal the whole or any part of any former law or ordinance.

54. And be it enacted, that all the records and proceedings whatsoever of and belonging to any inferior court, which has at any time heretofore existed within this colony, shall be kept and preserved, where it has been provided by any law in force at the time of the passing of this ordinance that the same should now be deposited, and shall there remain until further or other provisions respecting the custody of the same shall be made by the governor of this colony, by any proclamation to be by him issued for that purpose, and all parties concerned shall and may have access and recourse to the said records and proceedings as to the records and proceedings of any of the courts created and established by or under this ordinance, and every judgment and sentence of any inferior court which heretofore existed within any district of this colony, shall and may be proceeded upon in the court of the resident magistrate hereby created and established, having jurisdiction over a district comprising the town and village in which such former court was holden, precisely as if the complaint or action, whereon the same was given or pronounced, had been originally commenced, and the said judgment or sentence given or pronounced, in such last mentioned court. And if, at any time hereafter, courts of resident magistrates should be created by any such proclamation as in the 2d section of this ordinance mentioned, and the district be assigned for the jurisdiction of such court by any such proclamation as is in the 3d section of this ordinance mentioned, should be composed of any territory before then under the jurisdiction of some other court of resident magistrate, any judgment or sentence of such last-mentioned court, pronounced previously to the publication of such last-mentioned proclamation, and affecting any person or any property in such territory, shall be as valid and effectual, and may be proceeded upon precisely in the same manner as if such territory still remained under the jurisdiction of the court by which such judgment or sentence was pronounced.

55. And be it enacted, that all proceedings prior to judgment or sentence, which shall be pending in any court of resident magistrate, at the time of the commencement and taking effect of this ordinance, may be proceeded with in any court of resident magistrate established by this ordinance; in case such last-mentioned court be held in the same town or village in which such other court was holden, and shall be a court which could have jurisdiction in regard to such proceeding were the same commenced de novo.

56. And whereas it is intended, under the provisions of this ordinance, to erect and establish a court of resident magistrate at or in Simon's Town;—Be it enacted, that such court of resident magistrate, when erected and established, shall be held by and before the resident magistrate of the District of Wynberg, for the time being, or, in his absence, by and before such other person, being a justice of the peace, as the governor of this colony shall, from time to time, nominate and appoint, to act as resident magistrate of Simon's Town; anything in the 2d section of this ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

57. And be it enacted, that from and after the opening of such court of resident magistrate of Simon's Town as aforesaid, the "Police Court of Simon's Town," as erected, constituted, and established by the Ordinance No. 4 of 1834, entitled "Ordinance for erecting, constituting, and establishing Police Courts to be holden in Cape Town and Simon's Town respectively, and for defining the duties and jurisdiction of the Judges of Police of Cape Town, and of the justice of the peace of Simon's Town, respectively," shall be abolished; and every clause, provision, matter, or thing in the said Ordinance contained, relative to the said Police Courts, shall be repealed, and the same is hereby repealed accordingly.

58. And whereas it is expedient to add to and, in some particulars, amend the rules, orders, and regulations respecting the manner and form of proceeding in civil and criminal cases before the courts of the resident magistrates, respectively, of the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, bearing date the 22d March 1828,—Be it enacted, that the same shall be, and they are hereby repealed; and that the rules, orders, and regulations respecting the manner and form of proceeding in civil and criminal cases before the courts hereby erected, or authorised so to be, shall be the rules, orders, and regulations in that behalf in the 2d schedule to this Ordinance contained,—and that every rule, order, or regulation in the said schedule hereto contained, shall be deemed and taken to be of the same force and effect as if the same or the substance thereof had been embodied in so many enacting clauses of this Ordinance.

59. And be it enacted, that in the interpretation of this Ordinance, and of the rules, orders, and regulations hereunto annexed, the term governor shall be deemed and taken to mean the officer for the time being administering the government of this colony, and the term resident magistrate, the officer for the time being acting as such; and any word or words importing the singular number or the masculine gender only, shall respectively be understood to include several persons, matters, and things, as well as one person, matter, or thing, and females as well as males; unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction.

60. And be it enacted, that nothing in this Ordinance contained, shall extend to the District of Natal,

61. And be it enacted, that this Ordinance shall commence and take effect from and after the promulgation thereof.

Government of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice Admiral of the same, and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS the Royal Charter for the better

tions to be by him for that purpose issued, to apportion and divide the said Colony into two or more Districts, and to fix and ascertain the boundaries and limits of every such District, and such boundaries and limits, from time to time, to alter as occasion may require: Provided always, that such apportionment of the Colony into such Districts, as afore-may appear to be best adapted for enabling the Inhabitants of the Colony to resort with ease and convenience to the Circuit Courts to be therein established: And whereas by the said Charter, it is further granted, ordained, and appointed, that things as, by Law, the said Judges are empowered to do: and the said Judge shall from thence duly proceed to hold like Courts in the Chief Towns of the said other Districts hereinbefore mentioned, on such days as shall be hereafter publicly notified in that behalf.

And I strictly charge and command all Civil Commissioners, Clerks of the Peace, Deputy-Sheriffs, Field-Cornets, and other Officers, that

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

THE following Official Documents received this morning from King William's Town, are published for general information.

By order of the Administrator and High Commissioner,
JOHN CENTLIVRES CHASE, Sec. to Lt.-Gov.
Government House, Graham's Town, Dec. 31, 1847.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

WHEREAS, by a Proclamation by His Excellency her Majesty's High Commissioner, bearing date the 23rd day of December 1847, His Excellency was pleased to proclaim, declare, and make known, that for divers weighty reasons therein fully explained, the country situated between certain boundaries therein set forth should henceforth be called "BRITISH KAFFRARIA," and be held by the Kaffir chiefs and people from and under Her Majesty the Queen, by such services, and under such rules and regulations as Her Majesty's High Commissioner, or other Representative, who shall be the Great Chief of the whole of the said Territories, shall deem best calculated to promote the civilization, conversion to Christianity, and general enlightenment of the benighted human beings subject to his rule.

And whereas, it appears to His Excellency, that to facilitate the important object in view, it is absolutely necessary so to define and fix the certain line of territory, to be occupied by the chiefs and people of each tribe,
as that no dispute or disaffection may hereafter arise
among these people on a question of right of occupation.
His Excellency has therefore been pleased to lay down the following Rules and Regulations for the location of the various tribes who are to inhabit this territory, of which an accurate survey will hereafter be made.

First.—The territory to be allotted to the Chiefs and People of the GAIKA TRIBES shall be that being and lying between the following boundaries, viz:

From the northernmost source of the Chumie River, down its left bank to its junction with the Keiskamma, thence down the left bank of that River, to where the Fort Wiltshire wagon road crosses it, then along a line drawn from the crossing of the wagon road aforesaid, to the sources of the Green River, and down the left bank of this river to where it empties itself into the Buffalo River, thence descending by the left bank of this latter river, to its confluence with the Kameka or Yellowwood River, thence ascending along the right bank of the Kameka until it reaches where the Great Kie Road crosses, and from thence along the said road eastward to a road branching off to Possel's old German Mission Station, and along this branch road to the ridge dividing the waters running in the Kolonei River, from the waters running into the Kabonsie River, thence along this ridge to the Callazeli mountain, and along the summit of the Kabonsie and Amatoli ranges of mountains to the northernmost source of the Chumie aforesaid.

That part of the country within the limits here-inbefore described, being to the northward of the Debi River from its junction with the Keiskamma up to Fort White, thence northward of the road from Fort White to Fort Heresford, and from Fort Heresford to where the Great Kie Road crosses the Kameka River, is to be called YORKSHIRE, and that part of the said country southward of these lines, is to be called the COUNTY of MIDDLESEX, and the place of Sandilla, the chief of the Gaika's, is named YORK.

Second.—The territory to be allotted to the chiefs and people of the AMANBALA TRIBE, under Stock.

The DUSHANI PEOPLE, under Siwani, and of the HAMBIE PEOPLE under Tabais, shall be bounded by the Keiskamma, from the Fort Wiltshire wagon road aforesaid down the left bank of this river to the lower Wesleyville Drift, thence along the wagon road towards Wesleyville, until it reaches the Twecu River, then down the Twecu River to its confluence with the Chaluma, and up the latter river to the road crossing it to Mount Coke, then taking that road until it crosses a small stream near Mount Coke, and down that stream to its junction with the Buffalo River, thence up the right bank of this latter river, until it reaches its junction with the Green River, and up the Green River to its source, and from thence along the southern boundary of Middlesex to the Fort Wiltshire wagon drift. The country within these limits to be called LINCOLNSHIRE.

This country will be subdivided as follows:
For Stock and his people.—From the Fort Wiltshire Drift, on the Keiskamma, down that river to the junction with the Umtati, thence up the Umtati to its source, and across to the source of the Green River, thence to the Fort Wiltshire wagon drift aforesaid.

For Siwani and his people.—From the junction of the Umtati and Keiskamma, down the latter to where the Shushu joins it, thence up the Shushu to its source, from thence across to the source of the Chaluma, from thence to the small stream near Mount Coke (before mentioned) down that stream to its junction with the

Buffalo, up this latter river to where the Green River joins it, and further along the boundary between this and Middlesex, and the sub-division for Stock, before described.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
12th January 1848.

To the Field-Cornets and Inhabitants of the Districts of Uitenhage and George.

IN the latter end of October last, the Remains of a Man, who seems to have been murdered, were discovered in the Field of a Farm in the Kamnatie, Field-Cornetcy of Attakus Kloof, District of George. The Deceased is supposed to have been a colored Man, of 21 or 22 years of age, a shoemaker by trade, who appears to have been called "Jan" or "Johnny," and who, it is believed, came from the direction of Albany or Uitenhage, in or about July 1847, in company with a Man named "Thomas Tryhorne," a tailor, who had served on the Frontier under Captain Wilson, of the Cape Town Levy, and who is now in custody. These Men, when they were last seen together, near Cradock's Pass, had with them a dark brown or chesnut Horse, packed up with blankets and some wearing Apparel, and a double-barrelled percussion Gun, the property of the Deceased. It is stated by Thomas Tryhorne that he purchased this Horse and Gun from his Companion, and afterwards sold the Gun and exchanged the Horse. The sale of the Gun has been traced, but not, as yet, the exchange of the Horse.

The ends of justice may be materially promoted by any Person who will communicate to the Clerk of the Peace of the District of George, or direct to the Attorney-General, any particulars regarding the supposed deceased Man, "Jan" or "Johnny,"—where he usually lived during his lifetime,—where and under what circumstances he and Tryhorne first came together,—whether Tryhorne before or after he joined his companion had money, and, if so, how much?—and where exactly, and under what name, and for what assigned reason, Tryhorne exchanged the Horse? It is stated by Tryhorne that he paid his Companion for the Horse and Gun in the presence of a colored Man, of between 40 and 50 years of age, who looked like a tanner, and whom he and his Companion overtook near the Convict Station, Cradock's Kloof; and any information regarding such a person, or as to the fact of such a person having been seen in the Kamnatie in July last, or thereabouts, would be regarded as important.

By Command of His Excellency the Administrator of the Government,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
12th January 1848.

To the Field-Cornets and Inhabitants of the Districts of Uitenhage and George.

IN the latter end of October last, the Remains of a Man, who seems to have been murdered, were discovered in the Field of a Farm in the Kamnatie, Field-Coronetcy of Attaquas Kloof, District of George. The Deceased is supposed to have been a colored Man, of 21 or 22 years of age, a shoemaker by trade, who appears to have been called "Jan" or "Johnny," and who, it is believed, came from the direction of Albany or Uitenhage, in or about July 1847, in company with a Man named "Thomas Tryhorne," a tailor, who had served on the Frontier under Captain Wilson, of the Cape Town Levy, and who is now in custody. These Men, when they were last seen together, near Cradock's Pass, had with them a dark brown or chesnut Horse, packed up with blankets and some wearing Apparel, and a double-barrelled percussion Gun, the property of the Deceased. It is stated by Thomas Tryhorne that he purchased this Horse and Gun from his Companion, and afterwards sold the Gun and exchanged the Horse. The sale of the Gun has been traced, but not, as yet, the exchange of the Horse.

The ends of justice may be materially promoted by any Person who will communicate to the Clerk of the Peace of the District of George, or direct to the Attorney-General, any particulars regarding the supposed deceased Man, "Jan" or "Johnny,"—where he usually lived during his lifetime,—where and under what circumstances he and Tryhorne first came together,—whether Tryhorne before or after he joined his companion had money, and, if so, how much?—and where exactly, and under what name, and for what assigned reason, Tryhorne exchanged the Horse? It is stated by Tryhorne that he paid his Companion for the Horse and Gun in the presence of a colored Man, of between 40 and 50 years of age, who looked like a tanner, and whom he and his Companion overtook near the Convict Station, Cradock's Kloof; and any information regarding such a person, or as to the fact of such a person having been seen in the Kamnatie in July last, or thereabouts, would be regarded as important.

By Command of His Excellency the Administrator of the Government,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

THE following Government Notice, printed in the Gazette of last week is here republished in order to supply an omission in the clause relating to the Tambookie Tribes.

By order of His Excellency the Administrator and High Commissioner, JOHN CENTLIVRES CHASE.
Government House, Graham's Town,
7th January, 1848.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

WHEREAS, by Proclamation by His Excellency Her Majesty's High Commissioner, bearing date the 23rd day of December 1847, His Excellency was pleased to proclaim, declare, and make known, that for divers weighty reasons therein fully explained, the country situated between certain boundaries therein set forth, should henceforth be called "BRITISH KAFFRARIA," and be held by the Kaffir chiefs and people from and under Her Majesty the Queen, by such services, and under such rules and regulations as Her Majesty's High Commissioner, or other Representative, who shall be the Great Chief of the whole of the said Territories, shall deem best calculated to promote the civilization, conversion to Christianity, and general enlightenment of the benighted human beings subject to his rule.

And whereas, it appears to His Excellency, that to facilitate the important object in view, it is absolutely necessary so to define and fix the certain line of territory, to be occupied by the chiefs and people of each tribe, as that no dispute or disaffection may hereafter arise among these people on a question of right of occupation. His Excellency has therefore been pleased to lay down the following Rules and Regulations for the location of the various tribes who are to inhabit this territory, of which an accurate survey will hereafter be made.

First.—The territory to be allotted to the Chiefs and People of the GAIKA TRIBES shall be that being and lying between the following boundaries, viz:

From the northernmost source of the Chumie River, down its left bank to its junction with the Keiskamma, thence down the left bank of that River, to where the Fort Wiltshire wagon road crosses it, then along a line drawn from the crossing of the wagon road aforesaid, to the sources of the Green River, and down the left bank of this river to where it empties itself into the Buffalo River, thence descending by the left bank of this latter river, to its confluence with the Kameka or Yellowwood River, thence ascending along the right bank of the Kameka until it reaches where the Great Kie Road crosses, and from thence along the said road eastward to a road branching off to Fossel's old German Mission Station, and along this branch road to the ridge dividing the waters running into the Kolonci River, from the waters running into the Kabousie River, thence along this ridge to the Callazeli Mountain, and along the summit of the Kabousie and Amatoli ranges of mountains to the northernmost source of the Chumie aforesaid.

That part of the country within the limits hereinafore described, being to the northward of the Debi River from its junction with the Keiskamma up to Fort White, thence northward of the road from Fort White to Fort Beresford, and from Fort Beresford to where the Great Kie Road crosses the Kameka River, is to be called YORKSHIRE, and that part of the said country southward of these lines, is to be called the COUNTY OF MIDDLESEX, and the place of Sandilla, the chief of the Gaika's, is named YORK.

Second.—The territory to be allotted to the chiefs and people of the AMANALA TRIBE, under Stock.

The DUSHANI PEOPLE, under Siwani, and of the HLAMBI PEOPLE under Tabais, shall be bounded by the Keiskamma, from the Fort Wiltshire wagon road aforesaid down the left bank of this river to the lower Wesleyville Drift, thence along the wagon road towards Wesleyville, until it reaches the Tweeu River, then down the Tweeu River to its confluence with the Chalumna, and up the latter river to the road crossing, to Mount Coke, then taking that road until it crosses a small stream near Mount Coke, and down that stream to its junction with the Buffalo River, thence up the right bank of this latter river, until it reaches its junction with the Green River, and up the Green River to its source, and from thence along the southern boundary of Middlesex to the Fort Wiltshire wagon drift. The country within these limits to be called LINCOLNSHIRE.

This country will be subdivided as follows:

For Stock and his people.—From the Fort Wiltshire Drift, on the Keiskamma, down that river to the junction with the Umatai, thence up the Umatai to its source, and across to the source of the Green River, thence to the Fort Wiltshire wagon drift aforesaid.

For Siwani and his people.—From the junction of the Umatai and Keiskamma, down the latter to where the Shushu joins it, thence up the Shushu to its source, from thence across to the source of the Chalumna, from thence to the small stream near Mount Coke (before mentioned) down that stream to its junction with the Buffalo, up this latter river to where the Green River joins it, and further along the boundary between this and Middlesex, and the sub-division for Stock, before described.

For Tabais and his people.—From the Shushu and Keiskamma junction, down the Keiskamma to the lower Wesleyville Drift, thence along the wagon road towards Wesleyville to the Tweeu River, down the Tweeu to the Chalumna, up this latter river to the wagon road to Mount Coke, and further along the southern line of the subdivision for Siwani.

Stock's place to be called LINCOLN; Siwani's place to be called NEWARK; and Tabais' place to be called GRANTHAM.

The territory to be allotted to the AMAGUNQUABU TRIBES under Pato, shall be that between the certain boundaries as follows:

From the mouth of the Keiskamma up its left bank to the lower Wesleyville Drift along the road, thence towards Wesleyville, and following the line of boundary of Tabais' sub-division to the little stream near Mount Coke (before described) thence to where this stream runs into the Buffalo, down the right bank of the Buffalo to the Imbokazi, or Bridle Drift, thence along the lower Great Kie wagon road, to the head of the Umsingi River, down the Umsingi and Chichalo Rivers to the junction of the latter with the Kie, and down the right bank of this river to the sea.

The country within these limits to be called BEDFORDSHIRE. Pato's place to be called BEDFORD; the rising town at the mouth of the Buffalo River to be called LONDON.

The territories to be allotted to the HLAMBI TRIBES, under Umhala, shall be that between the boundaries as follows:

From the junction of the Buffalo and Kameka Rivers, ascending the latter river to where the Great Kie road crosses it, thence along this road to the head of the Kameka River, down that river to its junction with the Kie, and along the right bank of the Kie to its junction with the Chichaba, and then along the northern boundary of Bedfordshire to the confluence of the Buffalo and Kameka Rivers.

The country within these limits to be called CAMBRIDGESHIRE. Umhala's place near Fort Waterloo, to be called CAMBRIDGE.

The territory to be allotted to that portion of the Hlambe tribes under Tois, to be that between the lines as follows:

Along the southern boundary of Yorkshire, from the point where the Great Kie Road crosses the Kameka River, to the right bank of the Kalonci River, thence ascending its right bank up to the Windvogel Mountains, and back to the German Mission Station road, and along that road to the sources of the Instigie River, and down the right bank of this river to its junction with the Kie, thence to the source of the Kameka River, along the northern boundary of Cambridgeshire.

The country within these limits to be called the COUNTY OF SUSSEX. Tois' place to be called GOODWOOD.

The tract of country occupied by the Tamlookies, being the northern part of British Kaffraria, to be called NORTHUMBERLAND. The village at the Shiloh Missionary Station to be called NEWCASTLE. The Chief Umterara's place Howick, and the Chief Mapassa's place ALNWICK.

The names of villages within these counties will hereafter be given.

The Premiums are payable yearly in advance; or, at the option of the Assured, half-yearly, with a slight increase of the rate.

The Capital and Profits of this Institution are the ENTIRE PROPERTY of the holders of Policies of Insurance.

The Profits will be divided amongst the holders of Policies, at the termination of every period of THREE YEARS, after the year 1850, when the first distribution will take place; and each holder may determine that his Share shall be added to the sum assured by him;—or converted into a present payment;—or applied in reduction of the future annual premiums payable by him.

The pecuniary advantages, therefore, are the greatest that can be secured to Policy-holders in any Institution of this nature.

Any Person whose Life is assured, and who has paid Five Annual Premiums, may proceed direct to any part of this Colony, and to any dependency thereof;—and to any part of Europe in time of peace, at his pleasure.

Any Person whose Life is assured may proceed direct to any part of this Colony, and to any dependency thereof by sea and by land, at his pleasure.

For those who have not paid Five Annual Premiums, a Licence from the Board of Directors, but no additional Premium, is required when they proceed beyond the limits of this Colony and the dependencies thereof.

No Institution of this nature, it will therefore be seen, can reasonably consult the convenience of the assured to a greater extent.

By comparing the Rates or Scale of Premiums, the Public will perceive that those adopted by this Society are lower than those adopted by any respectable and safe Companies, in which, of course, a proper return for paid-up Capital, for risks, with profit to the Shareholders, must be provided for, as well as the benefit of the Assured or Policy-holders.

In this Society the Members and Policy-holders being the only Shareholders, receive back directly whatever excess of Rate the Tables may still retain. Every error, therefore, fully corrects itself;—and in this respect, also, MUTUAL ASSURANCE SOCIETIES excel all others.

The Principle and Tables of the Scottish Equitable Life Assurance Society have been adopted; and that Society in the course of only thirteen years from its commencement, after meeting all demands, sets forth, that its "NETT REALISED FUNDS amounts to £263,719 6 8."—although in Scotland the rate of interest is more than FORTY PER CENT. LOWER THAN AT THE CAPE.

[ADVERTISEMENT.]

REPORT of the Chairman and Directors of the Cape of Good Hope Bank, to the Proprietors at the Annual General Meeting, held on the 15th January 1848.

THE Chairman and Directors of the Cape of Good Hope Bank, beg to submit, to the Eleventh Annual General Meeting of Proprietors, the following Report of the Company's affairs:—

During the past year a profitable and steadily increasing business has been transacted by the Bank, the results of which are exhibited in the Accounts now laid before the Shareholders.

The Directors believe that there is reason to congratulate the Proprietors, on the present state and future prospects of the Company. Notwithstanding an increased competition, the profits of the Bank have not fallen off during the past year, and the large amount of fixed and floating Deposits proves an undiminished confidence on the part of the Public.

Anxious to exhibit a bona fide statement of net Profits, the Directors have pressed to the debit of Profit and Loss all assets of a doubtful character.

Having also charged that account with the amount of Current Expenses, and Interest due on Fixed Deposits, there will appear a balance in its favor of £9,275 4 10.

The Directors beg to recommend that from this balance an amount of £7,500 be appropriated to the payment of a dividend of £5 per Share, payable on and after the 1st Day of February next, and that the sum of £1000 be carried to the Surplus or Reserved Fund, leaving a balance of £775 4 10 at the credit of Profit and Loss. Three of the Directors, viz.:—Messrs. J. LETTERSTEDT, H. E. RUTHERFORD, and T. B. VENN, retire this day by rotation, and no other candidate having been nominated, it will remain for the Meeting to re-elect these Gentlemen by a specific motion to that effect in the usual form.

J. B. EBDEN,
Chairman.

The following interesting communication was sent to Messrs R. LAND and SON, 20, Hutton Garden, London.

23, Mason Street, Old Kent Road.
GENTLEMEN.—About August, 1839, my hair began to fall off, and in so rapid a manner, that in the space of a month my head was almost divested of hair. I tried several preparations for its recovery without the slightest benefit. When one day your circular, in "Collins' Memoranda," caught my eye I ventured on the purchase of a small bottle of ROWLAND'S MACASSAR OIL, after using which I found my hair was beginning to re-appear, and accordingly I purchased a larger bottle which when finished, I felt satisfied that I had proved in my own person all you profess as to its restorative qualities; in short, after two months steady perseverance in its use, I had as good a head of hair as at any time of my life, for which permit me to offer my thanks. I have delayed writing to you for six months (from the time of leaving off the Oil) wishing to test the permanence of its restoration. I find it continues as firm and thick as before it began to fall off, with every prospect of its continuance.

I am, gentlemen,
Yours obediently,
JOHN FOSTER.

GOUVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

Koloniale Secretary, Kaap de Goede Hoop, 12 Jan. 1848
Aan alle Veldkornets en Ingezetenen van de Districten Uitenhage en George.

IN het einde van October, 11. is het lyk van eenen man gevonden, schynbaar vermoord, in het veld van eene plaats in de Kammasie, Veldkornetschap Ataquasklof, District George. De overledene wordt verondersteld eenen kleurling te zyn geweest, omrent 21 of 22 jaren oud, een Schoenmaker van ambacht, die Jan of Johnny schynt genaamd te zyn geweest, en die men geloof dat uit de rigting van Albanie of Uitenhage is gekomen in July 1847, in gezelschap met eenen man genaamd THOMAS TRYHORNE, een Kleedermaker, die op de Frontieren had gediend onder Kapt. Wilson van de Kaapstad's lichte en die nu in hechtenis is. Deze lieden, toen zy laatst gezien zyn by Cradockpas, hadden by zich een donkerbruin of Vospaard, gepakt met oude Deken en eenige klederen, en een dubbel loop percussie Geweer, het embleem van den Ovetle e. THOMAS TRYHORNE zegt dat hy dit Paard en Geweer van zynen medegezel heeft gekocht, en naderhand het Geweer heeft verkocht, en het Paard veruuld. De verkoop van het geweer is geaccordeerd, maar de ruil van het Paard nog niet.

De lieden der gerechtigheid kunnen grootlyks worden beoordeeld door een ieder die aan den Griffier van het Vreeregt te George, of direct aan den Procureur Generaal kennis kan geven van eenige byzandheden aangaande den veronderstelden Overledene Jan of Johnny, waar en onder welke omstandigheden hy en TRYHORNE zyn by een gekomen, of TRYHORNE voor of na hy met zyn medegezel byeenkwam, geld had, en zoo ja, hoeveel, en waar, en onder welken naam, en om welke redenen TRYHORNE het Paard veruuld heeft. TRYHORNE zegt dat hy zyn medegezel voor het Geweer en het Paard heeft betaald in presentie van een kleurling tusschen 40 à 50 jaren oud, die er uitzag als een Looyer, en dien hy en zyn medegezel ontmoeten naby de Bandieten Statie aan Cradockskloof, en alle narigt aangaande zoodanig persoon, en waar hy gezien is in de Kammasie in July 11, of daaromtrent zal als belangryk worden beschouwd.

THE following Documents were ordered, by the Commissioners for the Municipality of Cape Town, to be published for general information.

Town House, January 26, 1848.

By Order of Commissioners,

P. J. DENYSSEN,
Secretary.

Town House, 25th January 1848.

SIR,—I beg to draw the particular attention of the Board of Commissioners to the great injury caused to the Upper Road from Rutgers-street to the Buitenkant, by large flocks of Sheep of from 400 to 500 in number, being daily driven in a furious manner along that direction to the Shambles. Large sums of money have been annually spent upon this Road, but an examination of it, will show that, apparently, it has never been repaired at all. The sheep completely plough up the Road, on their way to the shambles,—and unless some check or penalty be imposed to arrest this practice, I do not see how we shall be able to keep that, or any other Road in constant good order. Formerly the sheep were driven from the Lower Road through the market, and along the Imhoff Road, to their destination, but since the coming into operation of the Market Relief Ordinance, the Butchers have taken advantage of the privileges conferred upon them by its provisions, and have made use of the Upper Road (not being allowed to drive over the Military Ground, on the East-side of the market) to the serious detriment of the Municipality.

I hope, therefore, that some measures may be adopted to prevent a recurrence of such injuries.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

H. C. VOGET,
Town Surveyor.

P. J. DENYSSEN, Esquire,
Secretary to the Cape Town Municipality.

Colonial Office, 18th January 1848.

SIR,—With reference to your letter of the 3d September last, respecting the right of Sale by the Municipality of Cape Town, of certain Building Allotments situated between the Mouille and Three Anchor Bay Batteries.—I am directed by His Excellency the Administrator of the Government to acquaint you, that the subject, accompanied by the correspondence which has passed respecting it, has been referred to the Master General and the Board of Ordnance for decision, and that His Excellency, in doing so, has recorded his opinion, that it could be of no detriment to the Ordnance, and of great public utility in Cape Town.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. A. LE SUEUR,
Pro-Secretary to Government.
Absent on Duty.

The Chairman of the Cape Town Municipality.

The Premiums are payable yearly in advance; or, at the option of the Assured, half-yearly, with a slight increase of the rate.

The Capital and Profits of this Institution are the ENTIRE PROPERTY of the holders of Policies of Insurance.

The Profits will be divided amongst the holders of Policies, at the termination of every period of THREE YEARS, after the year 1850, when the first distribution will take place; and each holder may determine that his Share shall be added to the sum assured by him;—or converted into a present payment;—or applied in reduction of the future annual premiums payable by him.

The pecuniary advantages, therefore, are the greatest that can be secured to Policy-holders in any Institution of this nature.

Any Person whose Life is assured, and who has paid Five Annual Premiums, may proceed direct to any part of this Colony, and to any dependency thereof;—and to any part of Europe in time of peace, at his pleasure.

Any Person whose Life is assured may proceed direct to any part of this Colony, and to any dependency thereof by sea and by land, at his pleasure.

For those who have not paid Five Annual Premiums, a Licence from the Board of Directors, but no additional Premium, is required when they proceed beyond the limits of this Colony and the dependencies thereof.

No Institution of this nature, it will therefore be seen, can so advantageously consult the convenience of the assured to a greater extent.

By comparing the Rates or Scale of Premiums, the Public will perceive that those adopted by this Society are lower than those adopted by any respectable and safe Companies, in which, of course, a proper return for paid-up Capital, for risks, with profit to the Shareholders, must be provided for, as well as the benefit of the Assured or Policy-holders.

In this Society the Members and Policy-holders bring the only Shareholders, receive back directly whatever excess of Rate the Tables may still retain. Every error, therefore, fully corrects itself;—and in this respect, also, MUTUAL ASSURANCE SOCIETIES excel all others.

The Principle and Tables of the Scottish Equitable Life Assurance Society have been adopted; and that Society in the course of only thirteen years from its commencement, after meeting all demands, sets forth, that its "NETT REALISED FUNDS amounts to £263,719 6 8,"—although in Scotland the rate of interest is more than FORTY PER CENT. LOWER THAN AT THE CAPE.

JOHN FAIRBAIRN, Chairman.

N.B. Office of the Society, 12, Heeren-gracht, Cape Town. Office Hours from 9 o'clock A.M., to 4 o'clock P.M.

The Directors, and all persons connected with the management of the Society, have signed a declaration that they will preserve inviolable secrecy as to all business transacted with the Society.

Municipale Kennisgevingen

DE volgende Documenten worden op last van de Commissarissen van de Kaapstads Municipaliteit tot algemeen narigt gepubliceerd.

P. J. DENYSSEN, Sec.

Stadhuis, 26 January 1848.

Den Wel-Ed. Hr. & Mr. P. J. DENYSSEN, Secretaris Kaapstads Municipaliteit.

MYNHEER. Ik neem de vryheid de byzondere aandacht van het College van Commissarissen te vestigen op de groote schade te weeg gebragt aan den bovenweg van Rutgersstraat naar Buitenkant, door groote troepen Schapen van 400 tot 500 in getal welke dagelyks op eene geweldige wyze worden gedreven in de rigting van de Hallen. Groote sommen gelds zyn jaarlyks besteed aan dien weg, maar een onderzoek van denzelven zal toonen dat dezelve schynbaar nooit behoorlyk is gerepareerd geworden. De Schapen vernielen volkomenlyk den weg op hunnen gang naar het Slagthuis, en tenzy eenigen teugel of boete worde opgelegd zie ik niet in hoe deze of eenige andere weg in bestendige goede re-paratie kan worden gehouden. Voormaals werden de Schap-pen gedreven over den Markt en langs de Inhof Battery naar derzelve bestemming, maar sedert de "Markt Ontheffing Bill" in werking is gekomen, hebben de Slag-ters voordeel genomen van de voorregten hen geschonken by deszelfs voorzieningen, gebruik makende van den bovenweg (niet vergund zynde te passeren over den Milita-taire grond, ten Oosten van de Markt) tot groot nadeel van de Municipaliteit. Ik hoop dus dat eenige maatregelen zullen worden ter hand genomen om dit kwaad te stuiten.

Ik heb de eer te zyn,

Mynheer,

U-Ed. gehoorzame Dienaar,

H. C. VOGET,

Stads Inspecteur.

Battery, ben ik gelast door Zyne Excellentie den Administrateur des Gouvernements, u te berigten dat het onderwerp, slissing; en dat Z. E. zulks doende, zyn gevoelen heeft

Ordonance, en van groot publiek nut zyn voor de Kaapstad.

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE Government Gazette.

Published by Authority.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1848.

PROCLAMATION

BY HIS EXCELLENCY LIEUTENANT GENERAL
SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH:

Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Administrator of the Government of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa, adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS the introduction into this Colony (or such Districts of the same, as are sufficiently removed from the Eastern Frontier thereof) of Kafir Youths, to be apprenticed to Farmers or others, would greatly tend to the promotion amongst them of christianity, civilization, and industrious habits, and, at the same time, tend in some degree to supply the want of Field and other Labor, which the Inhabitants experience; And whereas the results which have attended the system of apprenticing, with care and attention, Captured Negroes set free from slavery, have been such as to show that Kafir youths will be sure of finding humane and kind treatment, and in time be enabled to improve themselves and benefit the Colony, in a degree proportionate to their known natural capacity: And whereas, in order to secure the social advantages aforesaid, I have made, and caused to be made, to the subjugated Chiefs and People, strong representations in regard to the benefit which would accrue to their now very destitute and wholly ignorant and helpless youths, were they placed under the care and protection of the Colonial Government, in order to be apprenticed to carefully selected masters, whose duty it should be to feed, clothe, and instruct them; And whereas, I have reason to believe that a considerable number of Kafir youths of different ages will be voluntarily, and from time to time, placed in my hands, for the purpose aforesaid, whom it is my intention to send to the several Districts of this Colony, as I may, from time to time, deem suitable: And whereas it is necessary to make known the rules and regulations under which the said youths will be apprenticed;—Now, therefore, I do hereby Proclaim, Declare and Make Known that the following Rules and Regulations shall be strictly observed:

- 1st. Every apprentice shall be apprenticed by an Indenture, as much as may be in the same form as the blank Indenture hereto annexed.
 2. Every such Indenture shall be executed by the Resident Magistrate of the District, acting for the Apprentice, on the one part, and by the Master on the other part.
 3. Every Apprentice under fifteen years of age may be apprenticed to a trade, or as a Farm or Domestic Servant, till he attain the age of Eighteen years.
 4. Every apprentice of the age of fifteen years or upwards may be apprenticed for a term not exceeding three years.
 5. Every Indenture shall be executed in duplicate;—one copy to be delivered to the Master, and the other copy to be preserved of record in the office of the Resident Magistrate, who shall make periodical returns of the contracts of every such Indenture, in such manner as he shall hereafter be directed.
- And I do further proclaim, declare, and make known, that all Resident Magistrates who shall, or may be, called upon to act in or about the apprenticing of any of the young persons aforesaid, are enjoined and expected to exercise their best and most anxious discretion in selecting from amongst the Inhabitants applying for such apprentices, fitting Masters or Mistresses, and to take steps, from time to time, to ascertain that the terms and conditions of the Indentures entered into are duly fulfilled, and generally to endeavour, as much as in them lies, to secure the well-working of the present attempt to add to the scanty supply of Colonial labour, and at the same time by reclaiming from a life of idleness, ignorance, and lawlessness, a number of the youth of BRITISH KAFFRARIA, to contribute, together with the other measures now in progress, to the peace, good order, and gradual advancement of that important Province.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Given under the Public Seal of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, this 27th day of January 1848.

SCHEDULE A.

I, A. B., do sincerely promise and swear, that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Victoria. So help me God!

Form of Oath of Office.

I, A. B., do promise and swear, that I will faithfully and diligently execute, to the best of my abilities, the several duties of the office of Resident Magistrate. So help me God!

SCHEDULE B.

Rules, Orders, and Regulations respecting the manner and form of proceeding in civil and criminal cases before the courts of the resident magistrates respectively of the colony of the Cape of Good Hope.

1. The jurisdiction in regard to civil cases belonging to any court of resident magistrate is exercisable over or in respect of any person residing or inhabiting within the district assigned to or appointed for, such resident magistrate.
2. The resident magistrate shall hold a court at such place or places as the governor shall by proclamation appoint, on not less than four days in each week, which days shall, in regard to each resident magistrate, be, from time to time, announced by some government notice or notices published in the government gazette. By such proclamation some place shall be fixed and appointed as the stated and ordinary place for the holding of the court, at which place cases of every description may be brought forward. But at the sittings of such court elsewhere than at the stated and ordinary place for holding the same, none except criminal cases, and cases between masters and servants and apprentices, under the orders of Her Majesty in Council of the 27th of August 1842, shall be cognizable.
3. The clerk of the said court shall, upon entering into his said office, taken an oath for the faithful performance of his duty, in the form following:—
"I, A. B., do swear, that I will truly and faithfully execute the office of clerk of this court, without fear, favor, or affection for any one; and that I will not, by myself or any other, receive or take for my own use, any fee or reward for any thing done by me in my said office; and that I will not take, or permit or suffer any person under me to take any other than such lawful fees as I shall be instructed to take or permit to be taken in my said office; and for all such I will duly and faithfully account to the Civil Commissioner of this district, whensoever I am thereunto required. So help me God!"
4. The oath of the messenger of the said court shall be as follows:—
"I, A. B., do swear, that faithfully and diligently I will serve the office of messenger of this court, and execute all summonses and process thereof, without favor or affection for any one; and that I will not, by myself or any other, take, receive, or demand, any other than such lawful fees as I may be permitted by this court to receive for anything done by me in my said office. So help me God!"
5. The clerk of the said court shall keep a book, ruled and divided into columns, headed and entitled according to the form set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed marked, D, which shall be called "The Civil Record Book of the Court of the Resident Magistrate, district of ———," and the said clerk shall enter therein, in manner hereinafter set forth, all proceedings in the said court; and the Resident Magistrate, once in every week, shall before the rising of the court, on any court day, sign the same.
6. The clerk of the said court shall upon the application and statement, personally or in writing, or by the lawful agent, of any one having matter of complaint or demand against another, subject to the jurisdiction of the said court, enter a plaint into the proper column of the said book, setting forth, shortly and distinctly, the names and places of abode of the said parties;—the nature and grounds of the said complaint or demand;—and the relief prayed;—and the said plaint shall stand for, and be taken as, and in the place of, a declaration of the cause of action between the parties;—and the said plaint shall be entered as near as is material in the forms and according to the precedents set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked A.
7. After entering the plaint of the party complaining, the clerk of the said court shall appoint and specify a day for the appearance of the said parties, with their witnesses, in order to the hearing of the said complaint at a reasonable time, according to the distance at which the party summoned lives from the said court; and he shall inform the party complaining thereof: and the said clerk shall issue and deliver to the messenger of the said court a summons for the party complained against, to appear before the said court with his witnesses,—if he have any, on the said day; and the said summons shall be, as near as may be, in the form following,—that is to say:—
"Court of the Resident Magistrate for the district of Albany.
"Messenger of the Court,
"Summon C. D., of ———, [describing him so particularly, that the officer of the court may know where to find him,] that he appear before the Court of the Resident Magistrate of this district, to be holden at Graham's Town, on the — day of — next, at — of the clock in the forenoon, with his witnesses,—if he have any, to show why he hath not paid to A. B. of [describing him as in the plaint] the sum of ———, which the said A. B. complains that he owes him for, &c. [following the statement in the plaint; or why he hath not satisfied A. B. of &c., the damage which the said A. B. complains that he has sustained, by reason that the said C. D., on or about, &c., broke down the fence, &c. of the said A. B., as the case may be,—following the statement in the plaint,] and serve on the said C. D., a copy of this summons. [and,—where the action is founded on any document,—a copy of the said promissory note or other document, &c.:—or,—and a copy of the account or bill of the said A. B., where the demand is upon account or bill] and return you on that day to the said court what you have done on this summons.
8. Where the party, against whom any summons or other process of the said court is issued, resides at such a distance from the place, where the said court is holden; or where, from the number of such summonses or other process, the said messenger cannot possibly serve or execute the same; the said summons or other process may be served or executed by his sufficient deputy,—to be first approved of as such by the resident magistrate,—who shall be paid by the said messenger, and for whom he shall be responsible.
9. A copy of the said summons,—together with copies of any documents, account, or bill, upon which the said complaint or demand is founded,—shall be delivered to the messenger with the said summons, and shall be served either personally on the said defendant, or left for him at his dwelling house with some one of his household, at least forty-eight hours before the time therein specified for his appearance, where the party summoned lives within five miles of the place of holding the said court;—three days, where the said party lives at a greater distance than five miles, and not exceeding ten miles;—and so one day in addition to forty-eight hours for every ten miles of distance, at which the party summoned lives from the place of holding the said court.
10. If two or more persons, jointly sued, are partners in trade,—the like service upon either of them shall be sufficient.
11. The messenger of the said court shall endorse or annex to the summons the manner of his executing the same, and shall return the said summons to the clerk of the said court.
12. It shall be permitted to any plaintiff or defendant in the said court to appear and conduct his case, by means of any person authorised by writing under his hand, to be filed with the clerk of the said court, and when it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of such court that, by reason of the absence from home of any defendant, such written authority could not be obtained, then it shall be permitted to any one of his family, or any one having a general authority to manage his affairs in his absence, and willing to conduct the said case, to appear for the defendant and conduct the same. But nothing shall, in the taxation of costs against either party, be allowed for the attendance or services of any person, not being enrolled in such court to practise as an agent therein, nor an attorney of the supreme or circuit court, and not being an advocate of the supreme court of the colony, instructed by such agent or attorney. And every such court of resident magistrate, upon being satisfied that any person who appears to have a right of action is, from poverty, unable to sue out the process of such court, may order all such process to issue without fee or charge. Provided always, that such person, should he receive sufficient from the other party, shall be liable to pay and make good all fees and charges so remitted.

13. On the court day appointed for appearance of the parties,—unless the said summons shall have been withdrawn,—the clerk of the said court shall cause the said parties, plaintiff and defendant, to be called; and if they, or any one duly authorised on their behalf, appear, he shall record the same, and the court shall proceed to enquire of and determine the said complaint or demand: and the said clerk shall read over the plaint, and ask the defendant or his agent, whether he will confess or deny the same; or where the complaint of the plaintiff is in respect of any sum of money alleged to be due to him, if he will make any like counter claim against the plaintiff; and the said clerk shall record his answer in the proper column of the said book.

14. If the defendant deny the said complaint or demand, or make claim of any sum of money as due to him by the said plaintiff,—the said plaintiff, or some one on his part, shall forthwith produce and exhibit to the court any writings or documents, whereon his complaint or demand may be founded, and shall also produce any witnesses he may require to have examined in support of the same.

15. The process of the said court, for compelling the attendance of any person to give evidence therein, shall be by summons issued by the clerk of the said court, and directed to the messenger thereof; and shall be served and returned by him in the same manner as any other summons of the said court; and the said summons may be sued out by either party requiring the attendance of any witness, and shall be, as near as is material, in the form following;—that is to say:—

"Court of the Resident Magistrate of the district of Albany."

"Messenger of the court,"

"Summon A. B. of &c., C. D. of &c., and E. F. of &c., that laying aside all and singular business and excuses, they and each of them appear in person before this court at Graham's Town, on the — day of — next, at — of the clock in the forenoon, to testify and declare all and singular those things which they, or any of them, know in a certain case, now depending in the said court, between I. K. Plaintiff, and N. O. Defendant; and that they, or either of them, by no means omit so to do, at their peril:—Serve on each of them, the said A. B. &c., a copy of this summons, and pay to the said A. B. the sum of ———, to the said C. D. the sum of ———, and to the said E. F. the sum of ———, for their travelling expenses, respectively,—and return to the said court, what you have done thereupon.

J. M., Clerk of the said Court.

Graham's Town, May 1st, 1848.

16. If any witness have in his possession or controul any deed, instrument, or writing, which the party, requiring his attendance, is desirous to show in evidence, then [the said summons shall be in the form following, namely,—[as in the former case, to the day of hearing and then proceed as follows,—] "And also that they bring with them, and produce at the time and place aforesaid a certain deed or instrument in writing, bearing date, &c. [describing very accurately the thing to be produced] and then and there to testify and declare, &c." [as before.]

17. There shall be delivered to the said messenger, together with the said summons, so many copies thereof as there are witnesses to be summoned, and also such sum or sums of money, as the party for whom they are to be summoned, intends, that the said messenger shall pay or offer to the said witnesses respectively for their travelling expenses;—and if any person,—being duly summoned to give evidence, and his reasonable expenses being paid or offered to be paid to him, and having no sufficient excuse, shall neglect, or refuse, to attend or give evidence according to said summons, then the said court shall impose upon the said person a fine for his default, not exceeding five pounds sterling; and for non-payment shall commit such person to the gaol of the said district for any time not exceeding fourteen days.

18. If it shall appear to the said court upon oath, that any person, who is a material witness for either party to any cause, having been duly summoned, doth not attend at the hearing thereof, then the resident magistrate shall, at his discretion, either postpone the hearing of the said case to another day, then to be appointed by him, or else shall take the examination of such witnesses as appear, and suspend the further hearing of the said case to another day; which postponement or suspension, and the cause thereof, and the day appointed for the further hearing, the said clerk shall note in the column of the said record book, entitled "day of hearing the case."

19. All persons examined or giving evidence in the said court shall be examined orally and apart, and in open court; and shall be sworn by the resident magistrate, according to the form of the religion they respectively profess, "to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth."

20. Whenever it shall appear necessary to the resident magistrate, before administering any oath, to examine the person touching his knowledge of the obligation thereof, he shall not merely ask such person generally, whether he understands the nature of the oath, but shall, after explaining to the said person that he is about to administer to him such oath, and the terms thereof,—further ask him:—

- 1st. Whether he believes it to be wicked not to speak the truth?
- 2dly. Whether he understands, that the taking of such oath is calling upon God to witness, that he does speak the truth?
- 3dly. Whether he believes, that God will hereafter punish any one, who—upon oath—does not speak the truth?
- 4thly. Whether he considers the oath about to be administered to him, binding upon him to speak the truth, and the whole truth?

21. Where it shall appear to the said court, that any matter is exclusively in the knowledge of the parties to any cause, then the said court may, at its discretion, and for the information of the said court, examine the same parties upon oath, or either, or any of them, touching the same.

22. Where in the course of any case it may be necessary for either party to produce and show to the court any record, entry, or document of the said court, it shall not be required of the said party to produce any office copy of such record, entry, or document; but the clerk of the said court shall, at his request, produce and show, or refer to, the original.

23. When the sum or matter in dispute amounts to the sum of forty shillings sterling, the clerk of the court shall take down the evidence and proceedings in writing, and shall also note any objections made by either party to any evidence received, or to any evidence or any document tendered by either party to the court.

24. The case on the part of the plaintiff having been heard—the defendant, or some one on his part, shall in like manner produce any writings, or documents, he may desire to have read to the court, and any witnesses to be examined in support of his answer or denial:—and the plaintiff shall be heard in reply thereto.

25. All judgments and sentences of the said court shall be given in open court, and shall be recorded by the clerk in the proper column of the said book.

26. Where any judgment shall be upon any debts, payable with interest thereon, the said interest shall be given up to the day of suing out the process of the court for the execution thereof.

27. If neither the defendant, nor any one admitted for him, appear on the court day appointed for that purpose, then the said court, upon the request of the said plaintiff, and being satisfied by the return of the messenger of the said court endorsed upon the said summons, that the same hath been duly served, shall proceed to hear the said plaintiff and his witnesses, and cause the evidence to be taken down in writing, and shall give judgment thereon against the said defendant, in the full sum found to be due by him, or awarded against him by the court; but the said judgment shall be only provisional in its nature, and no execution shall issue upon it until the plaintiff together with some one as his surety to be approved of by the said court for full restitution of the amount to be levied and raised under such judgment should the same be reversed, and the form of such security shall be the same as that set forth in the — of these rules and regulations, save and except that the words "notwithstanding the said C. D. has noted an appeal against the same," shall be omitted in the body of the said form, and the word "cause," shall be substituted for the word "appeal," in the end thereof.

28. The defendant may, at any time within four months next, after the levy made under any trial of execution issued by virtue of any such provisional judgment,—take out a summons of the said court, calling upon the plaintiff in the original action to show cause why the judgment obtained by him should not be reversed. And if it shall be made to appear to the said court by oath that the defendant was absent from his home at the time when the summons of the said court was served, and that he did not receive the same a sufficient time before the day of the return thereof, to be able to obey the same,—and that he did not absent himself from home for the purpose of avoiding the service of the said summons,—then the said court shall order the said judgment to be opened, and shall permit the defendant to answer the said complaint or demand—upon the terms, nevertheless, of payment of the costs incurred by his default,—and that the evidence before given by the said plaintiff, shall, on the re-hearing of the case be read from the evidence and proceedings taken down by the clerk of the said court, the said plaintiff being at liberty to bring further evidence, if he think fit: And upon the said re-hearing, the case, except as aforesaid, shall proceed, as if the defendant had appeared upon the original summons.

29. If the defendant or some one duly authorized on his behalf, do not, within four months next after such levy, as aforesaid, take out such a summons as aforesaid, the provisional judgment shall become final,—and the security, aforesaid, shall become ipso facto, null and void. But if upon the hearing any such summons the judgment therein mentioned shall be reversed or set aside, then the defendant shall be entitled without any cession, to sue upon the said security, for the recovery of the sums therein mentioned, less the costs incurred by his default.

30. If any person, summoned to appear on any day to answer any complaint or demand, shall appear according to the said summons, and the party complaining shall make default, the court shall adjudge the said plaintiff to be dismissed; or if he appear, and the judgment of the court be for the defendant, the said court shall adjudge to the said defendant his costs, to be taxed by the clerk of the said court, in like manner as for the party complaining; and the said defendant shall be entitled to the like process of execution for the same.

31. After judgment of the court against the party complaining, for default of appearance, he may, upon payment of costs, be admitted to commence a new action for the same cause, and the court may, in any case when it shall see fit, absolve the defendant from that instance, instead of giving judgment in his favor, in which case the plaintiff, upon payment of the costs awarded against him, may commence a new action for the same cause. But the judgment of the said court, when pronounced after the hearing of the cause, is a perpetual bar to any other suit or action for the same cause.

32. Any party against whom any final judgment or sentence of the said court has been given in any civil case (and an absolution from the instance shall be deemed to be such a final judgment or sentence) when the said judgment or sentence, exclusive of costs of suit, amounts to or is of the value of forty shillings sterling, if he intend to appeal therefrom to any superior court, shall on the next court day make known his intention to the clerk of the said court, who shall note his appeal, with the date thereof, in the proper column of the record book, and the party appealing, shall then deposit and lodge with the clerk of the said court, the sum of one pound, seventeen shillings and sixpence, as security for the costs of conducting the said appeal, and the said clerk shall make a note of the said deposit, in the last column of the record book, immediately after the note of the said appeal or review, and thereupon the said appeal or review shall be allowed, but not otherwise.

33. Any party may bring any such first judgment in review, at any time within six months after the pronouncing of the same, upon making a like deposit as in the case of an appeal. But no judgment shall be brought in review after the expiration of six months from the pronouncing of the same.

34. In any case where an appeal may have been duly noted and the proper security for costs given, the said court may direct, that the judgment or sentence appealed from shall be carried into execution,—or that the execution thereof shall be suspended pending the said appeal, as to the said court may appear most consistent with justice:—and in every case, where the said court shall direct such judgment or sentence to be carried into execution, the party, in whose favor the same shall have been given, shall, before the execution thereof, enter into security, together with some one as his surety,—to be approved of by the said court,—for full restitution of the amount to be levied and raised under such judgment, should the same be reversed, as also for the due execution of any such further judgment, order, or decree, as shall be afterwards pronounced upon or in respect of the said appeal. And the said security shall be, as near as may be, according to the form following:—

“Graham’s Town, May 1st, 1848.

A. B., of &c., Plaintiff, against
C. D., of &c., Defendant.

Whereas the said A. B., on the — day of — recovered, by judgment of the Court of the resident magistrate of the district of Albany, against the said C. D., the sum of —, together with the sum of — for costs, in a certain case before the said court; and whereas the said court has directed the said judgment,—notwithstanding the said C. D. has noted an appeal against the same,—to be carried into execution, upon security being given for restitution:—Now, therefore, the said A. B. and L. M., of —, farmer, as surety for him the said A. B., hereby severally undertake and bind themselves jointly and severally to refund and make due restitution of the above several sums of — and — should the judgment of the said court be reversed,—and further severally to conform to and execute such judgment, order, or decree, as shall be given and pronounced upon, or in respect of, such appeal.

In witness whereof, the said C. D. and L. M. have hereunto set their hands, on this 1st day of May, 1848.

(Signed) C. D.
L. M.

E. F.,
Clerk of the said Court.”

35. Where the party, who may have deposited with the clerk of the said court the sum required as security for the costs of conducting the said appeal or review, shall not afterwards duly proceed thereon to judgment,—the sum so deposited shall be applied to the payment of the costs incurred by the opposite party; and if there be any surplus, the same shall be forfeited and disposed of in the same manner as fines otherwise imposed by the said Court.

36. At the time when the judgment or sentence of the court is given in any case, the clerk of the court shall, at the request of the party in whose favor the same is given, ascertain and allow the necessary costs and expenses of the said suit against the party to be charged therewith; and in the said taxation he shall charge and allow all such necessary payments and disbursements made in the said case, as are provided to be paid by the tariff of charges in the schedule herunto annexed, marked C, and all such other reasonable sums of money, as the party, in whose favor the said judgment or sentence is given, has paid in bringing before the court any necessary witnesses, or evidence, or otherwise; and where he shall think it reasonable to allow any expense not herein provided for,—the same not being prohibited by any rule of the said court,—then he shall take the direction of the said court thereon, and make his allowance accordingly.

37. Whenever the court shall make an order for the payment of any debt or damages by instalments, such order shall be recorded by the clerk of the court in the last column of the civil record book, in manner and form as shown by schedule D, hereinafter contained.

38. The party in whose favor any judgment or sentence of the said court shall be given in any civil case, where the sum or matter in dispute shall be less than forty shillings sterling, or where it amounts to or exceeds that sum, and no appeal was noted, or, being noted, the sum of money required to be deposited with the clerk of the said court, is not deposited within the time appointed for that purpose, may sue out of the office of the clerk of the said court, the process of the said court for the execution thereof.

39. In all cases of appeal, the said court shall conform to, and execute such judgments, orders, and decrees, as shall be afterwards made and pronounced thereon, in like manner as any original judgment, sentence, or decree by the said court, could or might have been executed.

40. The process for execution of any sentence or judgment of the said court, shall be by warrant under the hand of the resident magistrate, directed to the messenger of the said court, as near as may be in the form following, that is to say:—

“Court of the Resident Magistrate,
District of Albany.

E. F., Messenger of the Court.

“Whereas in a certain case in this court, before me, wherein A. B. of &c., was the plaintiff, and C. D. of &c. was the defendant [describing the parties as in the plaint] the said A. B. on the — day of — last, by the judgment of the court, recovered against the said C. D. the sum of —, together with the sum of — for his costs [which said judgment has been duly affirmed on appeal, if the case so be, with the further sum of — for costs thereon] as appears in the proceedings of the said court; this is therefore to require you, that of the moveable property of the said C. 78. On the day of hearing, the magistrate shall inquire into the said charge or complaint, by causing the clerk of the court to read over the statement of the prosecutor, and by hearing such witnesses as he may produce in support of the charge;—and, in like manner, he shall hear any statement made by the defendant relevant thereto, and his witnesses, if any, in support thereof.

79. The resident magistrate shall hear, and summarily decide upon each case, and his judgment and sentence shall be pronounced in open court, and shall be recorded by the clerk in the proper columns of the criminal record book.

REPORT of the Directors of the South African Bank to its Shareholders, at their Ninth Annual General Meeting, held at the Bank, on the 31st of January, 1848.

It is with much satisfaction that the Directors have to report that the confidence of the public in this Institution continues undiminished, as evinced by the amount of the Deposits, and of the business transacted by the Bank.

In the course of the past year, the Directors were led to adopt the plan of allowing Interest on Floating Deposits, in accordance with the practice of some of the Banks in the Colony, and of many in the mother country, but notwithstanding the heavy charge thereby incurred, the net profits of the year 1847 exceed those of the previous year by £137 14 4. If this new charge be added to the balance of profits appearing on the statement submitted by the Directors, it will be seen that the net profits of the past year exceed those of any previous year of the Bank's existence; a result which is highly satisfactory in any point of view; but particularly so, when it is considered that in the course of the past year several new Banks have been established in the colony, which must necessarily have interfered with the ordinary business of the Bank.

To convey, in a tangible form, the amount of business done by the Bank, the Directors have to report, that in the year 1846 the Floating Deposits amounted to £1,727,484 7 8½, in 1847 they amounted to £2,022,806 2 5½.

In 1846, the Bills discounted amounted to £718,199 9 2½, in 1847, the amount was £736,553 8 4½, showing an increase in the proper business of the Bank, of upwards of £18,000.

After deducting from the past year, the expenses and the Interest on Fixed and Floating Deposits, the net balance of the year 1847, amounts to £8940 3 4½.

The Directors recommend that from this amount a sum of £8000 be appropriated to the payment of a dividend of £4 per share, and that the balance £940 3 4½ be added to the Bank's Protecting Fund.

In making up the statement for the consideration of the Shareholders, the Directors have deducted from the Capital Stock the amount of all ascertained losses.

Further details the Shareholders will find embodied in the annexed statement and balance sheet.

SAVINGS' BANK.

AT the Annual General Meeting of the Savings Bank Society, held in the Commercial Hall on the 29th day of January, 1848, the Hon'ble W. PORTER, Esq. President, in the Chair, the following Report was read:—

Seventeenth Annual Report of the Committee of Management of the Cape of Good Hope Savings Bank Society.

The usefulness of this Society has not, your Committee have great happiness in reporting, been diminished during the year just ended.

The number of new Depositors during the past year has been 354, making the total number of accounts opened since the establishment of the Bank 6013. Of these there now remain open 2144.

The whole amount of Deposits, since the establishment of the Bank, has been £281,546 6s., and the balance of the Deposits now held by the Depositors amounts to £51,765 18 9.

The present amount of the Bank's Investments is £52,525 7 7, and the amount of the Protecting Fund is £5,788 3 6.

The Committee have to report further, that during the last year a Bill was presented to the Legislative Council by the Hon'ble Mr. PORTER, the Chairman of the Bank, for amending the Ordinance constituting this Bank. In this Bill, which it is hoped will ere long be passed into law, certain changes are introduced which your Committee have long thought of importance.

One of the principal amendments contemplated, is the repeal of the restriction made by the old Ordinance relative to the election of Managers of the Society. The new Bill proposes that in future it shall not be required of Managers to be Householders, but that every inhabitant in Cape Town, or residing within ten miles of it, shall be competent to be elected a Member of the Society.

It is also proposed, that Members shall no longer be debarred by the mere fact of being Members from being Depositors in the Bank, and drawing interest from such Deposits.

The power of awarding a small remuneration to Managers for their attendance, so as to promote punctuality, is proposed to be vested in the Committee, and other minor changes calculated to facilitate transaction of business are also proposed.

The annual meeting will, it is proposed, in future take place in the month of March, not, as hitherto, in January; the completing of the books, so as to enable the Committee to lay a satisfactory statement of each year's proceedings before the Members, requiring a longer time than that allowed by the present arrangements.

For further information than that above given, relative to the transactions of the Bank, the Members are referred to the account attached to this Report.

The Committee conclude by expressing their confidence that the establishment of this Institution has not failed to be a blessing to a great many in this Colony, and their assurance that its useful influence will from year to year be felt and acknowledged more and more.

Zuid Afrikaansche Bank.

BERIGT van Bestuurders der Zuid Afrikaansche Bank aan de Deelhebbers, by gelegenheid van derzelver Negende Jaarlyksche Algemeene Byeenkomst, gehouden in het Bank-gebouw op den 31sten January 1848:—

De Bestuurders kunnen met groote voldoening berigten, dat het vertrouwen des Publieks in deze Institutie onverminderd voortduurt, ten bewyze waarvan strekken kan het bedrag van Deposita en de bezigheden door de Bank verrigt.

Gedurende het laatste jaar werden de Bestuurders genoodzaakt het plan te volgen ten einde renten op loopende Deposita toe te laten, volgens het gebruik van sommige Banken in de Kolonie, en van verscheidene in het vaderland, doch niet tegenstaande de zware uitgaaf daardoor veroorzaakt, gaan de zuivere winsten van het jaar 1847 die van het voorgaande jaar met £137 14 4½ te boven. Wanneer nu deze nieuwe uitgaaf gevoegd wordt by het Saldo van Winsten als voorkomt in de Staat Rekening door de Bestuurders voorgelegd, zal het bevonden worden dat de zuivere winsten van het jongst afgelopen jaar die van eenig vorige jaar, sedert de oprigting der Bank, overtreffen; een uitslag dat, hoe ook beschouwd, hoogst voldoende is; doch te meer zoo, wanneer men nagaat dat gedurende het laatste jaar verscheidene nieuwe Banken in de Kolonie zyn opgericht geworden, die noodwendiglyk op de algeroene bezigheden der Bank invloed moeten hebben gehad.

Ten einde de uitgestrektheid der bezigheden door de Bank verrigt duidelyker wyze op te sommen, kunnen de Bestuurders berigten dat de Loopende Deposita van het jaar 1846 £1,727,484 7 8½ bedroegen en die van 1847 £2,022,806 2 5½.

In 1846 was het bedrag der Verdisconteerde Wissels £718,199 9 2½ in 1847 bedroegen zy £736,553 8 4½, dus eene vermeerdering in de wezenlyke betigheden der Bank aantoonende van boven de £18,000.

De zuivere winsten van het jaar 1847 beloopten, na afrek van de uitgaven en renten op Vaste en Loopende Deposita op £8,940 3 4½.

De Bestuurders stellen voor dat de Som van £8,000 van dit bedragen besteedt wordt ter betaling van een Dividend van £4 per Aandeel, en dat het Saldo £940 3 4½ gevoegd wordt by de Reserve Fonds der Bank.

In het daarstellen van de Staat Rekening ter overweging van de Deelhebbers, hebben de Bestuurders van het kapitaal Fonds alle gerekere verliezen afgetrokken.

De verdere byzonderheden zullen de Deelhebbers behelst vinden in de geannexeerde Staat en Balans Rekeningen.

Zie Staat en Balans Rekening in het Engelsch.

Grain, Potatoes, and every description of Vegetable Proexpend has been spared by the present Proprietor, so that an intending Purchaser would enter under the most favorable circumstances. The DWELLING HOUSE is com-

Colonial Office, Cape Town,
21st February 1848.

THE Lord Bishop of Cape Town having yesterday arrived in this Colony, His Excellency the Administrator of the Government has directed the publication of the following Letters Patent founding the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope and its Dependencies, together with the Island of St. Helena, to be a Bishop's See and Diocese, under the style of the Bishoprick of Cape Town, and the Church of St. George's of Cape Town, a Cathedral Church, and Bishop's See, also constituting the whole Town of Cape Town a City, to be called the City of Cape Town, and nominating and appointing ROBERT GRAY, Doctor in Divinity, to be called and known by the name or title of the Lord Bishop of Cape Town.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, to all whom these Presents shall come—Greeting.

WHEREAS the doctrine and discipline of the united church of England and Ireland are professed and observed by many of our loving subjects resident in our colony or settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and in our island of St. Helena, and our aforesaid subjects are deprived of some of the offices prescribed by the liturgy and usage of the church aforesaid, by reason that there is not a bishop residing and exercising jurisdiction and canonical functions within the same.

And whereas, for remedy of the aforesaid inconveniences and defects, it is our royal intention to erect the said colony or settlement and island into a Bishop's See or Diocese.

Now, know ye, that in pursuance of such our royal determination, we do by these our Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, erect, ordain, and constitute our said colony or settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, with its dependencies, and our said island of St. Helena, to be a Bishop's See and Diocese, and do declare and ordain, that the same shall be called the Bishopric of Cape Town.

And to the end that this our intention may be carried into due effect, we, having great confidence in the learning, morals, probity, and prudence of our well-beloved ROBERT GRAY, Doctor of Divinity, do name and appoint him to be ordained and consecrated Bishop of the said See of Cape Town: And we do hereby signify to the most reverend father in God, WILLIAM, by Divine Providence Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Primate of all England, and Metropolitan, the erection and constitution of the said see and diocese, and our nomination of the said ROBERT GRAY.

Requiring, and, by the faith and love whereby he is bound unto us, commanding the said most reverend Father in God, to ordain and consecrate the said ROBERT GRAY to be Bishop of the said see or diocese in manner accustomed, and diligently to do and perform all other things appertaining to his office in this behalf, with effect. And we do ordain and declare, that the said ROBERT GRAY, so by us nominated and appointed, after having been ordained and consecrated thereunto as aforesaid, may, by virtue of such appointment and consecration, enter into and possess the said Bishop's See, as Bishop thereof, without let or impediment from us, our heirs or successors, for the term of his natural life, subject nevertheless to the right of resignation hereinafter more particularly expressed.

Moreover, we will and grant by these Presents, that the Bishop of Cape Town shall be a body corporate, and do ordain, make, and constitute him to be a perpetual corporation, and to have perpetual succession, and that he and his successors be for ever hereafter called or known by the title of the Lord Bishop of Cape Town. And that he and his successors by the name or title aforesaid, shall be able and capable in the law, and have full power to purchase, have, take, hold, and enjoy manors, messuages, lands, rents, tenements, annuities, and hereditaments, of what nature or kind soever, in fee, and in perpetuity, or for a term of life or years, and also all manner of goods, chattels, and things personal whatsoever, of what nature or value soever, and that he and his successors, by and under the same name or title, may prosecute, claim, plead, and be impleaded, defend, and be defended, answer, and be answered, in all manner of courts of us, our heirs, and successors, and elsewhere in and upon all and singular causes, actions, suits, whits, and demands, real and personal, and mixed; as well spiritual as temporal, and in all other things, causes and matters whatsoever. And that the said Bishop the sum of twenty pounds for every such act; and every person who shall assist or procure any person in Her Majesty's navy to desert or improperly absent himself from his duty, or shall conceal, employ, or continue to employ any person belonging to Her Majesty's navy who shall be a deserter, or improperly absent from his duty, knowing him to be such a deserter or so improperly absent, shall forfeit and pay the sum of thirty pounds for every such assistance, procurement, concealment, employment, or continuing of employment as aforesaid.

12. And be it enacted, that every governor, gaoler, and keeper of any prison, gaol or house of correction, and every officer having the charge or command of any place, ship, or vessel for imprisonment, who shall refuse or neglect to receive or confine, remove, discharge, or deliver up any prisoner or offender as herein prescribed, shall forfeit for every such refusal or neglect the sum of one hundred pounds.

13. And be it enacted, that all penalties and forfeiture imposed by this act shall and may be recovered with costs, either by information or complaint, by summary proceedings before any justice or justices of the peace residing in or near the place where the offence shall be committed, or where the offender shall at any time happen to be, and whether the offence be committed in or out of Her Majesty's dominions, or within the jurisdiction of the admiralty of England, or not; and if the sum imposed as a penalty by any such justice or justices shall not be paid, either immediately after the conviction or within such reasonable time as such justice or justices shall at the time of the conviction appoint, it shall be lawful for the justice or justices to commit the offender or offenders to the common gaol or house of correction, there to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard labour, according to the discretion of such justice or justices, for any term not exceeding six calendar months, the commitment to be determinable upon payment of the amount and costs; and all penalties and forfeitures recoverable under this Act shall be paid and applied in manner following; (that is to say,) one moiety of such penalty shall be paid to the informer or complainant, and the residue thereof shall be paid to the commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, any thing in an act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled an Act to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales, or in any other act or acts of parliament, to the contrary notwithstanding.

14. And be it enacted, that any justice or justices of the peace may summon any witness to appear and give evidence before him or them upon any matter cognizable under this act, at a time and place appointed for hearing the information or complaint, and by warrant under his hand and seal or their hands and seals may require any person to be brought before him or them, who shall neglect or refuse to appear to give evidence at the time or place appointed in such summons, proof upon oath being first given of personal service of the summons upon the person against whom such warrant shall be granted; and such justice or justices may commit any person coming or brought before him or them, who shall refuse to give evidence, to any common gaol or house of correction, there to remain without bail or mainprize for any time not exceeding six calendar months, or until such person shall sooner submit himself to be examined, and in case of such submission the order of any such justice or justices shall be sufficient warrant for the discharge of such person.

15. And be it enacted, that the justice or justices before or by whom any person or persons shall be summarily convicted of any offence against this act, may cause the conviction to be drawn up in the following form of words, or in any other form of words to the same effect, as the case shall require; (that is to say,)

16. And be it enacted, that no conviction under this act shall be quashed for want of form, or be removed by Certiorari or otherwise, into any of Her Majesty's superior courts of record, and no warrant, commitment, or order for imprisonment shall be held void by reason of any defect therein, provided it be therein alleged that the person has been convicted or ordered to be imprisoned, and there be a good and valid conviction or an offence to sustain the same.

17. And be it enacted, that this act may be amended or repealed by any act to be passed during this present session of parliament.

without the knowledge of the Officer having the charge or command thereof, any money, clothing, provisions, tobacco, letters, papers, or other articles not allowed by the rules of the prison to be in the possession of a prisoner, or shall throw into the said prison any such articles, or shall by desire of any prisoner, without the sanction of the said officer, carry out of the prison any of the articles aforesaid, he shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds; and if any person shall assault or violently resist any officer of such prison in the execution of his duty, or shall aid or excite any person so to assault or resist any such officer, he shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, or if the offender be a prisoner, he shall upon conviction thereof, by a board of not less than three of the visitors of the prison, be liable to be sentenced for every such offence to be imprisoned, either with or without hard labor, and with or without solitary confinement, for any time not exceeding six calendar months, in addition to so much of the time for which he was originally sentenced as may be then un-expired.

9. And be it enacted, that it shall be lawful for the constable of any place where any person reasonably suspected to belong to Her Majesty's navy, and to be a deserter or improperly absent from his duty, shall be found, or of any adjoining place, and if no such constable can be immediately met with to secure him then for any person in Her Majesty's service, to apprehend or cause such suspected person to be apprehended, and cause him to be brought before any justice in the united kingdom, or in any of Her Majesty's dominions or territories, or in the territories under the government of the East India company in or near such place, who shall examine such suspected person, and if by his confession, or the testimony of one or more witness or witnesses upon oath, or by the knowledge of such justice it shall appear that any person brought before him is a person belonging to Her Majesty's navy, improperly absent from his duty, such justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed to the nearest or most convenient public prison, and shall transmit an account thereof to the secretary of the admiralty, or to any commander-in-chief or officer commanding any one of Her Majesty's ships or vessels, with a description of such person and the name of the ship or vessel to which he shall or may be suspected to belong, or if any such offender shall be apprehended by any person in Her Majesty's service, or shall be apprehended in the vicinity of any one of Her Majesty's ships or vessels in commission, then such justice shall order him to be taken on board any such ship or vessel, instead of committing him to prison; and in all cases the justice shall certify the name of the person by whom the offender was apprehended, and such last-mentioned person shall be entitled to a reward for such apprehension, according to the amount which is or may be established by the naval regulations or instructions for the time being in that behalf, or in case the apprehension shall be under circumstances for which no reward is or may be established, the amount of such reward shall be any sum in the discretion of the lord high admiral, or the said commissioners, or of the officer commanding the vessel to which the deserter or person who shall have been improperly absent shall belong, not exceeding three pounds, and the reward shall in every case be paid and charged against the wages or pay of any such offender, and stopped out of the same; and for every such information, commitment, or order and account as aforesaid the clerk of the said justice may be entitled to a fee of two shillings and no more, and every gaoler and other person into whose custody any such offender is committed shall immediately upon the receipt of him pay such fee of two shillings, and also upon the production of a receipt from the medical practitioner who may have been required to examine such suspected person a fee of two shillings and six-pence, and such sums shall be repaid to such gaoler or other person, and the same, together with six-pence for every day the offender shall be in his custody, which shall be paid to such gaoler or other person, shall be charged against the pay or wages of the offender, and every gaoler or other person having the custody of any such offender shall deliver him up to any person authorised to take charge of him by the lord high admiral, or the commissioners for executing the office of lord high admiral, or by any naval commander-in-chief, or the officer commanding any one of Her Majesty's ships or vessels, and any person so authorised shall convey him in safe custody on board any one of Her Majesty's ships or vessels in commission.

10. And be it enacted, that any person who shall voluntarily deliver himself up as and confess himself to be a deserter from any one of Her Majesty's ships or vessels, or improperly absent from such ship or vessel, or who while serving in any of Her Majesty's forces, or the embodied militia, or the forces of the East India company, shall to any officer or non-commissioned officer thereof confess himself to be a deserter as aforesaid, or who, upon being apprehended for any offence, shall in the presence of the justice confess himself to be a deserter, or improperly absent from his ship or vessel as aforesaid, and his statement shall not be true, he shall, if received into Her Majesty's naval service, be deemed in Her Majesty's navy, and be liable to serve and be detained therein as if he had voluntarily entered, or in case such person shall not be received into Her Majesty's navy, he shall, on conviction thereof before two justices of the peace, at or near the place where he shall deliver himself up or confess or where he may at any time happen to be, be adjudged to be punished, if in England, as a Rogue and a Vagabond, and if in Scotland or Ireland, by commitment to some prison or house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding three months.

11. And be it enacted, that every person who, by words or any other means whatsoever, shall persuade any person in Her Majesty's navy to desert or improperly absent himself from his duty shall forfeit and pay

And we do further by these presents ordain and constitute the Town of Cape Town, within the said colony or settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, to be a Bishop's See, and the seat of the said Bishop. And we do ordain that the said Town of Cape Town shall henceforth be a City, and be called the City of Cape Town. And we do hereby further ordain and declare, that the Church called St. George, in the said City of Cape Town, shall henceforth be the Cathedral Church and See of the said ROBERT GRAY and his successors, Bishops of Cape Town. But, nevertheless, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Bishop and his successors, by any writing or writings, under his or their hand, and episcopal seal, to make and constitute any other church now erected, or hereafter to be erected within the said city or the liberties thereof, to be the Cathedral Church and See of the said Bishop and his successors, in the place and stead of the Church of St. George aforesaid.

And we do further ordain and declare, that the said Bishop of Cape Town and his successors shall be subject and subordinate to the metropolitan See of Canterbury, and to the Archbishops thereof, in the same manner as any Bishop of any See within the province of Canterbury, in our kingdom of England is under the same metropolitan see, and the Archbishops thereof.

And we do further will and ordain, that every Bishop of Cape Town shall take an oath of due obedience to the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, as his metropolitan, which oath shall be ministered by the said Archbishop, or by any person by him duly appointed or authorized for that purpose.

And we do further by these presents expressly declare, that the said Bishop of Cape Town, and also his successors, having been respectively by us, our heirs and successors named and appointed, and by the said Archbishop of Canterbury canonically ordained and consecrated according to the form of the united church of England and Ireland, may perform all the functions peculiar and appropriate to the office of the Bishop within the said diocese of Cape Town. And for a declaration of the spiritual causes and matters in which the aforesaid jurisdiction may be more specially exercised,—we do by these presents further declare, that the aforesaid Bishop of Cape Town and his successors may exercise and enjoy full power and authority, by himself or themselves, or by the Archdeacon or Archdeacons, or the Vicar General, or other officer or officers hereinafter mentioned, to give institution to benefices, to grant licences to officiate to all rectors, curates, ministers, and chaplains of all the churches or chapels, or other places within the said diocese, wherein divine service shall be celebrated according to the rites and liturgy of the Church of England, and to visit all rectors, curates, ministers, and chaplains, and all priests and deacons in holy orders of the united Church of England and Ireland, resident within the said diocese, and also to call before him or them, or before the Archdeacon or Archdeacons, or the Vicar General, or other officer or officers hereinafter mentioned, at such competent days, hours, and places, when and so often as to him or them shall seem meet and convenient, the aforesaid rectors, curates, ministers, chaplains, priests, and deacons, or any of them; and to enquire as well concerning their morals as their behaviour in their said offices and stations respectively, subject nevertheless to such rights of review and appeal as are hereinafter given and reserved. And for the better accomplishment of the purpose aforesaid, we do hereby grant and declare that the said Bishop of Cape Town and his successors may found and constitute one or more dignities in his Cathedral Church, and also one or more Archdeacons within the said diocese, and may collate fit and proper persons to be dignitaries of the said Cathedral Church, and one or more fit and proper persons to be Archdeacons of the said Archdeacons respectively.

Provided always that such Dignitaries and Archdeacons shall exercise such jurisdiction only as shall be committed to them by the said Bishop or his successors, and the said Bishop and his successors may also from time to time nominate and appoint fit and proper persons to be respectively the officers hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, to be vicar general, official principal, chancellor, rural deans, and commissaries, either general or special, and may also appoint one or more fit and proper persons to be registrars and actuaries. Provided always, that the dignitaries and archdeacons aforesaid shall be subject and subordinate to the said Bishop of Cape Town and his successors, and shall be assisting to him and them in the exercise of his and their episcopal jurisdiction and functions.

And we will and declare, that during a vacancy of the said See of Cape Town by the demise of the Bishop thereof or otherwise, the said dignitaries, archdeacons, and the said vicar general, or other officers respectively appointed as aforesaid, shall continue to exercise, so far as by law they may or can, the jurisdiction and functions delegated to them, and that the said registrars and actuaries shall respectively continue to discharge the duties whereunto they have been appointed, until a new Bishop of the said see of Cape Town shall have been nominated and consecrated, and his arrival within the limits of the said diocese shall have been notified to the said parties respectively.

And we further will, and do by these presents declare and ordain, that it shall be lawful for any party against whom any judgment, decree, or sentence shall be pronounced by any of the said archdeacons, or by the vicar general, or other officer or officers of the said Bishop or his successors, to demand a re-examination and review of such judgment, decree, or sentence, before the Bishop or his successors in person, who, upon such demand made, shall take cognizance thereof, and shall have full power and authority to affirm, reverse, or alter the said judgment, sentence or decree; and if any party shall conceive himself aggrieved by any judgment, decree or sentence, pronounced by the said Bishop of Cape Town, or his successors, either in case of such review, or in any cause originally instituted before the said Bishop, or his successors, it shall be lawful for the said party to appeal to the said Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, or his successors, who shall finally decide and determine the said appeal.

Provided always that in any such case of appeal or review notice of the intention of the party to make such appeal, or demand such review, shall be given to the Bishop or subordinate judge, by whom the sentence appealed from or to be reviewed shall have been pronounced, within fifteen days from the promulgation thereof.

And we do further will, and by these presents ordain, that in all cases in which an appeal shall be made, or review demanded, as aforesaid, a copy of the judgment or sentence in such case promulgated or given, setting forth the causes thereof, together with a copy of the evidence on which the same was founded, shall without delay be certified and transmitted by such subordinate judge to the said Bishop or his successor, or by the said Bishop or his successors, to the said Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as the case may require.

Moreover, it is our will and pleasure, and we do hereby declare and ordain, that nothing in these presents contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal, vary, or alter the provisions of any charter whereby ecclesiastical jurisdiction has been given to any court of judicature within the limits of the said diocese.

And for removing doubts with respect to the validity of the resignation of the said office and dignity of Bishop of Cape Town, it is our further will that if the said Bishop, or any of his successors, shall, by instrument under his hand and seal delivered, and sent to the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, and by him accepted and registered in the office of faculties of the said Archbishop, resign the office and dignity of Bishop of Cape Town, such Bishop shall, from the time of such acceptance and registration, cease to be Bishop of Cape Town to all intents and purposes, but without prejudice to any responsibility to which he may be liable in law or equity in respect of his conduct in his said office.

And lastly, to the end that all things aforesaid may be firmly holden and done, we will and grant to the aforesaid ROBERT GRAY, that he shall have our Letters Patent under our Great Seal of our said United Kingdom duly made and sealed. In witness whereof we have caused these our letters to be made patent. Witness Ourselves, at Westminster the 25th day of June, in the eleventh year of our reign.

By Writ of Privy Seal.

PROCLAMATION

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH,

Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Administrator of the Government of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa, adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS, in virtue of the several powers and authorities in me vested, and subject to Her Majesty's Royal confirmation, I do hereby PROCLAIM, DECLARE, and MAKE KNOWN, that part of the Proclamation of the 25th October 1847, as regards the Oath of Allegiance, null and void, and I pledge myself for the Loyalty of all Her Majesty's Emigrant Subjects in the District of Natal.

And I hereby PROCLAIM and DECLARE, that every exertion shall be made to put into possession of a good and extensive Farm, not exceeding Three Thousand Morgen, all such of Her Majesty's original Emigrant Subjects, as have claims upon the Government of Natal for Land, either by grant, where the claim is strong and peculiar, or in ordinary cases by purchase at a valuation, or by public sale. And I hereby appoint a Land Commission to be composed of—

Lieut.-Col. Boys, 45th Regt., President.

Donald Moodie, Esq.

Jacobus Nicolaas Boshof, Esq.,

Andreas Wilhelmus Jac. Pretorius, Esq.,

Members.

Captain Kyle, 45th Regt., Secretary, at a salary of Ten Shillings a day.

The great and sole object for which this Land Commission is appointed, is to place in his true position, and upon his own Land, every man of Her Majesty's Subjects, as well Burghers as Kafirs, that each and all may be equally protected, and that all intermixture be avoided. The Commission will receive all claims and applications as above, and will be guided by the most liberal constructions of such rules and ordinances as may exist; but whenever a case arises not provided for by any direct rule, or there be any differences of construction to be put upon that rule, then shall the Commission invariably give it in favor of the Individual. And I hereby authorize this commission, where evidence or information be required, to summon before it all and every one required, except his Honor the Lieut.-Governor. And I hereby empower, authorize, and direct the Lieut.-Governor to carry out all suggestions of the Land Commission, as to Land and Locations, subject to the approval of Her Majesty's High Commissioner.

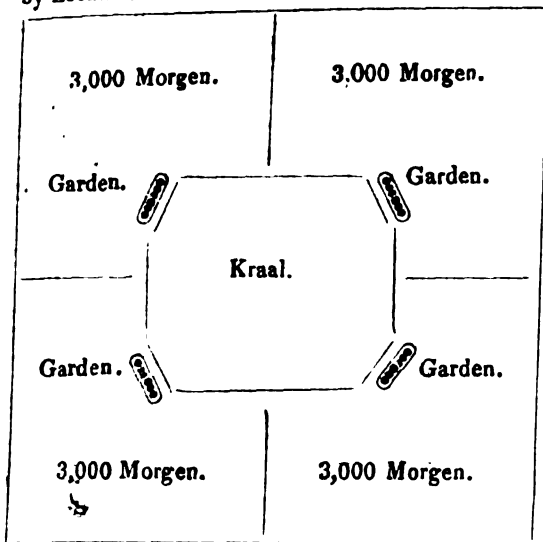

And I hereby PROCLAIM and DECLARE, that every Individual in occupation of Land shall receive his Diagram and Title thereof with the least possible delay, that he may know, and hold, his own Land inviolate from the inroad and location of the others. And whereas it appears much dissatisfaction has arisen from the Kafir Locations being intermixed with the original occupants of land: I hereby PROCLAIM and DECLARE that such intermixture cannot be, and all classes of the Colored Population who have had free Locations given them, must be removed, so that a distant line be established between the different races of Her Majesty's subjects. And I hereby authorize the formation of a Kafir Police, to consist of as many men as may be hereafter determined, to be posted, so soon as organized, at such points on the Bushman's and other Rivers, as for protection of Her Majesty's subjects from the robberies they suffer from the Bushmen inhabiting the lower range of the Drakenberg mountains.

And I hereby PROCLAIM and DECLARE that all Lands held by Grant, and supported and maintained in possession of the original Emigrants, shall be subject to a Quit Rent which shall be established by the Commission aforesaid.

And I hereby PROCLAIM that it is my desire, that all the subjects of Her Majesty, for whom I have so unequivocally and unhesitatingly pledged my security, do return to their Farms, and that they place that confidence in Her Majesty's Government, the Government desires to place in them.

And I hereby PROCLAIM and DECLARE that all the Farms upon the Klip River, as originally held, shall be continued in the possession of the original occupants thereof; but no Military Protection can be afforded them so long as Peace is maintained upon the sure footing of a just understanding and I hereby assure them that no one can be more amicably disposed than the Chief Panda, and whenever any cause for alarm or apprehensions arises due notice will be given thereof. And this assurance is to prevent evil disposed, or bad persons, circulating groundless and vexatious lies. These Locations when voluntarily made, and situated at a great distance, security thereof will be best attained by Locations thus established:—

But in the event of war, or any real cause of apprehension for such a scourge and curse to mankind, then the Government is bound to adopt measures for general defence, as a universal appeal to arms, with the aid of her Majesty's troops, as the case may, in a military point of view, require.

And I hereby authorise the establishment of a military post on the Bushman's River, of a strength his Honor the Lieut. Governor of the district of Natal may determine.

And I hereby PROCLAIM and DECLARE that it is the desire of her Majesty to promote the erection of churches throughout her dominions, and whatever sum be subscribed by contribution, her Majesty authorizes as a loan the advance of an equal amount; also for schools, and the provision of Ministers and Schoolmasters will be duly and fully considered. And thus as security in the occupation of land be truly and distinctly afforded, and consequent good faith and happiness established themselves, so will loyalty and devotion to our gracious Queen, and confidence in, and attachment to her Majesty's government, develop themselves.

And I hereby invite all those Emigrant Subjects of Her Majesty, who are so miserably located on the inhospitable range of the Drakenberg Mountains, into the District of Natal, where land shall be granted to them on the Klip and Great Tugela Rivers, upon application through the Land Commission. If recommended His Honor will immediately make a grant not exceeding Three Thousand Morgen, according to the quality of Land, the making such grants will be continued for one year from this date. On the expiration of that period the usual mode of sale will be reverted to, and the Land Commission be dissolved.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

Given under my hand, and the Seal of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, at Pietermaritzburg, this 10th day of February, 1848.

(Signed) H. G. SMITH.

By Order of His Excellency
Her Majesty's High Commissioner,

PROCLAMATION.

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH,

Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Administrator of the Government of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice Admiral of the same, and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the Affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa, adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS, as Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settlement and adjustment of the Boundaries, and an amicable and clear understanding of the Affairs and relationship with the Chiefs, Tribes, and People of the Countries adjacent to the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, I have placed upon a permanent foundation the preservation of peace, harmony, mutual confidence, and the attainment of a solid and lasting friendship on the Eastern Boundary, and have personally visited the countries upon the North and North-Eastern Boundary of the Colony, on the line leading to Her Majesty's Settlement of Natal, annexed to the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope for the purpose of obtaining information from all the various parties concerned, upon matters so involving the interests, not only of the Native Chiefs of the Countries into which many of Her Majesty's legal Subjects have established themselves, but also of those Subjects themselves; and have personally conferred with the leading Chiefs of the neighbouring Tribes, and with many of the meritorious and devout Missionaries, as well as with the influential and thinking men of Her Majesty's Subjects located as aforesaid; and have received several addresses very numerous, signed by the inhabitants between the Orange, the Modder, and Riet Rivers, as well as from those around Bloem Fontein, and from the Caledon River, and also those from the neighbourhood, and at Wenburg.

Now, therefore, by virtue of the several powers and authorities in me vested, and subject to Her Royal confirmation.—I do hereby PROCLAIM, DECLARE, and MAKE KNOWN, the Sovereignty of Her Majesty the Queen of England over the Territories North of the Great Orange River, including the Countries of Moshesh, Moroko, Molitsani, Sinkonyala, Adam Kok, Gert Taaybosch, and other minor Chiefs, so far North as to the Vaal River, and East to the Drakensberg, or Quathamba Mountains; with no desire or inclination whatever on the part of Her Majesty to extend or increase her Dominions, or to deprive the Chiefs and their People of the hereditary rights acknowledged and recognized by all civilized nations of the world, as appertaining to the Nomadic Races of the earth; but on the contrary, with the sole view of establishing an amicable relationship with these Chiefs, of upholding them in their hereditary rights, and protecting them from any future aggression, or location of Her Majesty's Subjects, as well of providing for their rule, and the maintenance of good order, and obedience to Her Majesty's laws and commands on the part of those of the Queen's subjects, who, having abandoned the land of their fathers, have located themselves within the territories aforesaid: And I hereby PROCLAIM, that all the Chiefs of the Territories aforesaid are under the Sovereignty of Her Majesty as the paramount and exclusive authority in all international disputes as to territory, or in any cause whatever tending to interrupt the general peace and harmony of South Africa: but that their authority over their own Tribes shall be maintained, as well as their own laws according to their customs and usages.

And I hereby PROCLAIM, that all her Majesty's subjects within the Territories aforesaid, shall be governed by the Laws, Ordinances, and Proclamations framed, and to be framed, for Her Majesty's Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, and that they shall henceforth be in full possession of the rights of citizens of the said Colony, and that Municipalities, Corporations, and other privileges shall be granted to them, as their increase and improvement may require.

And I do hereby PROCLAIM that Her Majesty's Government assumes the responsibility to the Chiefs, as regards their just indemnification for all lands now occupied by these Her Majesty's subjects, upon the latter paying an annual quitrent, according to a schedule which shall be established by a Commission appointed for the purpose, and upon the condition that every able bodied man turns out in the defence of Her Majesty, and her allies, either with arms, or as special constables, as may be required by the British Resident and Magistrates.

The appropriation of these quitrents shall be:—Firstly, for the fair and honest remuneration and indemnification of the Native Chiefs, in lieu of any and all Contracts or Leases entered into by Her Majesty's subjects, so that no breach of faith shall exist, in the faith of an agreement entered into by Her Majesty's High Commissioner with the great Chiefs Moshesh, Moroko, Sinkonyala, Adam Kok, and others. Secondly, for the defraying the expenses of their own government, viz.,—the British Resident at Bloem Fontein, Magistrates, &c., as shall hereafter be appointed, with Sheriff's Officers, Constables, &c., and Field Commandants and Field Cornets, &c., as the full organization of a government may require, and for bearing the expense of sending into Colesberg all criminal cases which must be tried before the judges.

And I hereby PROCLAIM and DECLARE, that every Trader or other individual trafficking, or engaged in commerce, within the Territories aforesaid, shall pay an annual licence of Fifty Pounds, in like manner as the Traders in British Kaffraria; these licences to be obtained from any Commissioner within or without the Colony, who are hereby authorised to grant the same; and all sums which thus accrue, and whatever surplus remains of the sums collected as quit rents, after the payment of the indemnification to the Native Chiefs for the Lands, and the expense of the Government aforesaid, shall be vested in a fund, under the control of a Commission, composed of members of the Dutch Reformed Church, appointed by Her Majesty's High Commissioner, for the erection of churches on such spots as may be selected and sanctioned, and for the provision of Ministers, and hereafter for the erection of Schools and for their maintenance, for the improvement of Roads, &c., all for the exclusive benefit of the population North of the Orange River. And whatever sums may be subscribed for the erection of any Church or Churches, as Her Majesty's High Commissioner, I pledge myself to advance on loan an equal sum.

And I hereby PROCLAIM all the Missionary Stations within the Territories aforesaid, to be under the special protection of Her Majesty the Queen of England.

And I hereby PROCLAIM and DECLARE, that this Sovereignty and paramount Authority is for the sole protection and preservation of the just and hereditary rights of all the Native Chiefs as aforesaid, and for the rule and government of Her Majesty's Subjects, their interests and welfare. That no benefit whatever accrues, or is desired by Her Majesty, beyond the satisfaction Her Majesty the Queen will ever feel in the maintenance of a just peace, and the improvement of the condition of her people, and in their advancement in the blessings of christianity, civilization, and those habits of industry and honesty which will elevate and civilize the barbarian, and support and uphold the christian community, and thus will that peace be established which Her Majesty desires to effect, and has the power and determination to maintain.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, 23rd February, 1848.

HIS Excellency the Administrator of the Government has been pleased to direct the publication of the following Document for general information.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

Bloem Fontein, 24th January, 1848.

In order amicably to settle on a permanent basis the relationship between Captain Adam Kok and the Emigrant British Subjects, His Excellency the High Commissioner proposes to Captain Adam Kok, that in lieu of the half of the quit rents he now receives in virtue of the Treaty of the 6th of February, 1846, he shall receive Two Hundred a-year, in half yearly payments of One Hundred Pounds; and that his people, for the lands they have let, shall receive One Hundred Pounds per annum, in two payments of Fifty Pounds each.

That as the leases under which British Subjects now hold land in the inalienable territory expire, all such subjects shall be bound and obliged to quit that territory, on receiving payment from the Griquas of the value of the buildings and improvements made by them on such lands, according to a valuation which shall at once be made by a Commission, consisting of the British Resident Captain Warden, Captain Adam Kok's Secretary Hendrik Hendriks, and one of the Emigrant Farmers, the votes of a majority of whom being decisive, on any point on which all do not agree.

In the event of the Griquas being unable to pay the amount of the valuation aforesaid, at the time of the expiry of the lease, the lessee shall be entitled to retain possession of the property at an annual rental to be fixed by the Commission aforesaid, or such other as may be agreed on, until the payment be made or until the annual rental (which the lessee shall in that case be entitled to retain) shall amount to the valuation aforesaid.

The High Commissioner also proposes to Captain Adam Kok that the above sum of Three Hundred Pounds a year, shall be payable in perpetuity for the farms leased now only for forty years in the alienable territory; and which leases shall be in perpetuity for the consideration aforesaid, viz., Three Hundred a year.

The above having been translated into the Dutch language, Captain Adam Kok declared to accede to the terms and conditions proposed.

Agreed on, and given under our hands, this twenty-fifth day of January, 1848.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, 23rd February 1848.

HIS Excellency the Administrator of the Government has been pleased to direct the publication of the following Document for general information.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

Winburg, 27th January, 1848.

His Excellency the High Commissioner and the Great Chief Moshesh having met this day, pursuant to appointment, for the purpose of discussing the matter of the territory occupied by the British Emigrants, part of the possessions of the Great Chief aforesaid, as well as for the purpose of considering the affairs of Southern Africa, North of the Great Orange River, generally; the Great Chief fully concurred in the proposition of His Excellency, that Peace, Harmony, and Tranquillity could neither be established nor maintained, without the existence of some great and paramount authority. For the purpose therefore of effecting this object, and at the same time of maintaining inviolate the hereditary rights of the Chiefs, and of effectually restraining the Boers within the limits, and upon the locations, they now possess, and that Magistrates might be appointed, and Surveyors employed to ensure the same, His Excellency proposed the Proclamation of the Sovereignty of the Queen of England throughout all the territories over which Her Majesty's subjects have spread themselves, partly by purchase, partly on toleration, and frequently without either. Of the expediency of this great measure, in which the Chiefs previously concurred with, viz., Moroko, Adam Kok, and various other minor Chiefs, had fully concurred, the Chief Moshesh most fully approved and strongly expresses himself that such paramount authority was absolutely necessary for the purpose of maintaining in strict alliance with Her Majesty of England, that harmony and unanimity which it had been his wish to preserve, and his desire to effect. His Excellency then adverted to the treaty entered into with Sir Peregrine Maitland in 1845, and the receipt of a part of the quit rents as therein established; upon which the Chief immediately said, he had not met the High Commissioner on any pecuniary point, which he begged to waive entirely; but that as he had ever been a strong and staunch friend to such of Her Majesty's Subjects as had emigrated and desired to locate upon his territories, so all he hoped was, that the measure of policy the High Commissioner proposed to adopt, to ensure harmony and tranquillity between Her Majesty's and his own Subjects, would be carried out. Upon this, in the name of Her Majesty, His Excellency highly complimented and thanked the Great Chief Moshesh, stating that he was unable to express himself as to which he admired most, his feelings as a Man, or his magnanimity as a Chief. The High Commissioner then proposed that in honour of this day's cemented alliance, he may be permitted, in the name of Her Majesty, to forward annually from Cape Town such articles of British Manufacture as he hoped would be acceptable to the Chief.

And thus ended a conference as mutually satisfactory to the High Contracting Parties, as it is hoped its results may be permanent and satisfactory.

Given under our hands this twenty-seventh day of January, 1848.

Pietermaritzburg, 10th February 1848.

From the Representative of Her Majesty the Queen of England, and Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, "SMITH," to "PANDA," King of the Zoolah Nation.

Know, King Panda, I have been sent here through far distant countries, to establish peace and happiness; I have traversed the country of Moshesh, Morokho, Molessani, and others. I have made every amicable arrangement with those Chiefs, and it was my desire to have visited the King Panda, had the rivers permitted me, that I might in person have expressed to the King of the Zoolahs, the satisfaction it will afford Her Majesty of England, when I write to state that the friendly, amicable, and faithful relationship existing between you, King, and Her Majesty's Subjects, do you great honor. Almighty God, who rules Kings, loves peace, and commands it. All brave men love peace and the King Panda is assured peace shall be maintained by Her Majesty's Subjects—and that they shall restrain themselves within the limits of the territory agreed to by King Panda.

I am sorry, King Panda, I could not go to see you, or that I cannot stay here long enough to invite you to come and see me; this, however, adds to the respect I bear you, and I will not fail to lay before Her Majesty, whom I serve, the high opinion I entertain of your amity and faith. May all prosperity and happiness attend you, is the desire of the Representative of the Queen of England. Your Friend,

Wheels, Coulter and Shares, ready for use, £12 10 0
HARROWS,—Wrought Iron,—complete, and ready for use. £8 0 0

The First Prizes having been awarded to these Ploughs at the last Caledon and Swellendam Ploughing Matches, will serve to show the high estimation in which they are held by the enterprising agriculturists of these districts. And their PECULIAR SUITABILITY and GREAT ADVANTAGE over other descriptions of Ploughs, for this Country and Climate is further exemplified by the facility with which, from their great strength, and at the same time lightness of draught, they penetrate the hardest ground, and the very effectual and highly satisfactory manner in which the soil is worked by them.

They obviate the necessity that has hitherto been felt so much, in waiting for heavy rains, to soften the ground,—and the great delay, loss, and inconvenience arising from this interruption to Ploughing, is quite done away with by using them.

An early application is requested, as there are not many, and the moderate prices, compared with that of other Ploughs, will ensure a ready sale.

PROCLAMATIE

DOOR ZYNE EXCELLENTIE LUIT-GENERAAL.
SIR HENRY GEORGE WYKELYN SMITH,

Baronet, Ridder Groot Kruis van de Hoog-Edelen Orde van het Bad, Kolonel 2de Battalion Scherpschutters, Administrateur van het Gouvernement van de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, en den Ressort van dien, en Ordinaris, en Vice Admiral van dezelve; en Harer Majesteits Hooge Commissaris voor het afooren en ver-effenen van de Zaken van het Grondgebied in Zuid Afrika, belendend aan en annex de Oostelike en Noordelike Grenzen van de gez. Kolonie, enz. enz.

WADEMAAL ik uit kracht van de magt en het gezag in my gevestigd, en onderworpen aan de Koninklyke goedkeuring van Harer Majesteit, PROCLAMEER, VER-KLAAR en BEKEND MAAK, dat dat gedeelte van de Proclamatie van den 25sten October 1847, betrekkelijk den Eed van Getrouwheid nul en van geen waarde is, en ik my aansprakelyk stel voor de Getrouwheid van al Harer Majesteits Uitgewekene Onderdanen in het District van Natal.

Zoo Proclameer en verklaar ik by deze, dat alle pogingen zullen worden aangewend, om alle zoodanige van Harer Majesteits oorspronkelyke Uitgewekene Onderdanen, welke vorderingen hebben tegen het Gouvernement van Natal wegens Land, hetzy door uitgifte, waar de aanspraak sterk en eigenaardig is, of in gewone gevallen door koop tegens waardering, of door publieke verkoop, in het bezit te stellen van eene zoele en nitgestrekte Plots, niet te bovengaan 3,000 morgen. En ik benoem by dezen eene Land Commissie, welke bestaan zal uit:—

Luit. Kol. Boyes, 45 Regt., President,
Wel-Ed. Heer Donald Moodie,

Jacobus Nicolaas Boshof, } Leden
Andreas Wilhelmus Jacs. Pretorius, }

Kapitein Kyle, 45 Regt., Secretaris, tegen een salaris van 10s per dag.

Het eenige en groote doel waartoe deze Land Commissie wordt aangesteld, is om elk een van Harer Majesteits Onderdanen, zoowel Burgers als Kaffers, in zyn ware standpunt, en op zyn eigen land te plaatsen, dat elk en ieder gelykelyk beschermd, en dat alle vermenging vermyd kan worden. Deze Commissie zal alle aanspraken en verzoeken, als gemeld, ontvangen, en zal tot haar rigtsnoer nemen de meest liberale uitlegging van zulke regulatien en ordonnantien welke er mogen bestaan; maar aanneer een geval zich voordoet, waarin door eene regtstrecke regulatie niet is voorzien, of wanneer er eenig verschil bestaat omtrent de uitlegging van zoodanige regulatie, zal de Commissie altyd de uitlegging volgen ten voordeele van den individu. En ik gelast de Commissie by dezen, hyaldien er getuigen of inlichting vereischt wordt, om allen en een iegelyk des vereicht voer zich te dagvaarden, behalve Zyne Edelheid den Luitenant Gouverneur. En ik volmagtig, autorizeer en gelast den Luitenant Gouverneur om alle voorstellen van de Land Commissie ten uitvoer te brengen, betrekkelijk Land en locatien, onderworpen aan de goedkeuring van Harer Majesteits Hoogen Commissaris.

En ik proclameer en verklaar by dezen, dat elk individu in het bezit van land, zyn kaart en erfgrondbrief zoo spoedig mogelyk zal ontvaangen, op dat hy zyn land kennen en houden zal, vry van inval en locatien van anderen. In nademaal veel misdorren schynt te zyn ontstaan, uithoofde dat de Kaffer locatien vermengd zyn met de originele bezitters van land, zoo proclameer en verklaar ik by dezen, dat zulke vermenging niet kan bestaan, en alle klassen van de gekleurde bevolking, aan welke vrye locatien zyn gegeven geworden, moeten verplaatst worden, zoodat er onderscheidende linien worden vastgesteld tusschen de verschillende rassen van Harer Majesteits onderdanen. En ik gelast by dezen de oprigting van eene Kaffer Police, te bestaan uit zoele manschappen, als waartoe hierna zal worden besloten, te worden geposteerd, zooda dezelve zal zyn georganiseerd, op zoodanige punten van de Boschjesmans en andere Rivieren, als tot bescherming van Harer Majesteits onderdanen, tegen de rooverijen welke op hen gepleegd kunnen worden door de Boschjesmans, die de lagere reeks van den Drakenberg bewonen.

En ik proclameer en verklaar by dezen, dat alle landes, bezeten volgens uitgifte, en onderhouden en in bezit geweest van de originele Emigranten, onderhezig zullen zyn aan eene Erpacht, welke bepaald zal worden door voormelde Commissie.

En ik proclameer en verklaar by dezen, dat het myn ver-langen is, dat al de Onderdanen van Harer Majesteit, voor dewelke ik my zoo dandelyk en zonder aanzelen heb verbonden, naar hune plaatsen zullen terug keeren, en dat zy hetzelfde vertrouwen in Harer Majesteits Gouvernement stellen, hetwelk het Gouvernement steeds wenscht in ha te stellen.

En ik proclameer en verklaar by dezen, dat al de plaats van de Khrivier, zoo als dezelve origineel bezeten zyn geworden, in het bezit zullen blyven van de originele bezitters; maar hen kan geene Militaire bescherming worden verleend, zoo lang de vrede wordt bewaard op den zekeren voet van eene billyke verstandhouding, en ik ver-zeker hen dat niemand meer genegen is tot vriendschap dan het Opperhoof PANDA, en wanneer er eenige reden van verontuusting of vrees ontstaat, dat hen by tyds behoort te worden gelyk en voortekomen dat kwalikgezinde en vreesachtige personen ongegronde en kweliende leugens verspreiden. Deze Locatien, aldaar vrywillig gemaakt, en gelegen op eenen groten afstand, zullen het best bever-ligd kunnen worden door Locatien aldus ingerigt:—

(Hier volgt het Plan der Locatien.—Zie in het Engelsch)

Maar ingeval van oorlog, of eenige wezenlyke oorzaak van vrees voor zulk een gessel en vloek voor het menschdom, is het Gouvernement, om maatregelen te nemen tot algemeene veiligheid, als algemeene oproeping tot de wapenen, met behulp van Harer Majesteits troepen, als het geval, uit een militair oogpunt beschouwd, zal vereischen.

En ik gelast by dezen de oprigting van een Militaire Post aan de Boschjesmans Rivier, van eene sterkte, welke zyne Edelheid de Luit. Gouverneur van het Distrikt van Natal zal bepalen.

En ik proclameer en verklaar by dezen, dat het de wensch is van Harer Majesteit om het bouwen van Kerken in haar gebied te bevorderen, en voor zoodanige som als door inschrijving zal worden byeengebragt, gelast Harer Majesteit als eene beleening een voorschot van een gelyk bedrag; ook voor scholen en het geven van Leeraar en Schoolmeesters zullen voorzieningen worden gemaakt. En daar dus zekerheid in het bezit van land waarlyk en duidelyk verleend wordt, en dus goede trouw en welvaart zich hebben gevestigd, zoo zullen getrouwheid en toegenegeheid aan onze genadige Koningin, en vertrouwen in, en verkleefdheid aan Harer Majesteit, zichzelve ontwikkelen.

En ik nodig by dezen al die Uitgewekene Onderdanen van Harer Majesteit, die zoo ellendig geplaatst zyn aan de onveilige reeks van den Drakenberg, naar het Distrikt van Natal te komen, waar hen Land zal gegeven worden aan de Klip en groote Tagela Rivieren, op aanzoek by de Land Commissie. Wanneer zulks aanbevolen wordt, zal Zyne Edelheid dadelijk eene uitgifte doen, niet te bovengaan de Drie Duizend Morgen, volgens de kwaliteit van het Land, en deze uitgiften zullen een jaar duren van heden gerekend. Na verloop van dien tyd, zal men de gewone manier van verkoop weder by der hand nemen, en de Land Commissie ontbonden worden.

GOD BEWARE DE KONINGIN!

Gegeven onder myne hand, het Zegel van de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, te Pietermaritzburg, op den 10den dag van February 1848.

Ransome's Iron

PLOUGHS & HARROWS

PER "PERSIA"

VENNING, BUSK, & Co.

HAVE received a few of these CELEBRATED PLOUGHS AND HARROWS, similar to those imported last year, and which gave so much satisfaction to all who obtained them.

They are for sale at the following low prices.—Extra Shares, and Duplicates of several parts, can also be obtained, if required.

SINGLE FURROW PLOUGHS, YL, 2 Wheels.

Coulters and Shares, ready for use, £8 0 0

DOUBLE FURROW PLOUGHS, YR R.

Wheels, Coulters and Shares, ready for use, £12 10 0

HARROWS.—Wrought Iron,—complete, and ready for use. £8 0 0

The First Prizes having been awarded to these Ploughs at the last Caledon and Swellendam Ploughing Matches, will serve to show the high estimation in which they are held by the enterprising agriculturists of these districts. And their PECULIAR SUITABILITY and GREAT ADVANTAGE over other descriptions of Ploughs, for this Country and Climate is further exemplified by the facility with which, from their great strength, and at the same time lightness of draught, they penetrate the hardest ground, and in the very effectual and highly satisfactory manner in which the soil is worked by them.

They obviate the necessity that has hitherto been felt so much, in waiting for heavy rains, to soften the ground,—and the great delay, loss, and inconvenience arising from this interruption to Ploughing, is quite done away with by using them.

An early application is requested, as there are not many, and the moderate prices, compared with that of other Ploughs, will ensure a ready sale.

16 and 17, Burg-street, Cape Town.

SALE OF VALUABLE LANDED PROPERTY AND STOCK,

THE TOWN OF SWELLENDAAM.

The 5th and 6th April 1848.

This fine Property consists of the delightful Residence and richly cultivated Estate of Rotterdam, measuring 586 acres of rich alluvial soil, bearing heavy crops of Grain, Potatoes, and every description of Vegetable Produce.

In rendering this pleasant Residence suitable for a Gentleman's Family, in enclosing the Lands and Gardens, and bringing a plentiful supply of Water for their irrigation, no expense has been spared by the present Proprietor, so that an intending Purchaser would enter under the most favorable circumstances. The DWELLING HOUSE is commodious, the Rooms spacious and lofty, with planked floors and excellent attics. It is surrounded by shady Oaks, Orange and other Fruit Trees. There is splendid Stabling for 20 Horses, Coach House, Smith's Work Shop, Shed, and numerous useful Out-buildings; also large Paddocks and inclosed Camps for young Horses, to the breeding of which the place is so remarkably well adapted.

The vicinity of this Estate to the rising Town of Swellendam, possessing the advantages of Church in the Dutch and English Services, Market, the best medical aid, and means of instruction, must always insure its increasing value.

ROWLAND'S KALYDOR,

PREPARED from the most beautiful Exotics; and WARRANTED PERFECTLY INNOCENT, yet possessing properties of surprising energy: it eradicates all CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS, PIMPLES, SPOTS, REDNESS, &c., transforms even the most SALLOW COMPLEXION into RADIANT WHITENESS, realigns delicate WHITE FACE, NECK, HANDS, and ARMS, and imparting a BEAUTIFUL JUVENILE BLOOM to the COMPLEXION; successfully renders HARSH and ROUGH SKINS, beautifully soft, smooth, and even.

The KALYDOR is equally indispensable in the Nursery as at the Toilet. Perfectly innocuous, it may be used by the most delicate Lady, with the assurance of safety and efficacy.

To MOTHERS NURSING their OFFSPRING, it gives in all cases of incidental Inflammation, immediate relief, cools the mouth of the Infant, and enhances internal pleasure in the act of administering alimentary nourishment.

To GENTLEMEN, whose faces are tender after Shaving, — A great infelicity which attends the operation of shaving, is the irritation of the skin; — many Gentlemen suffer greatly from this cause. Rowland's Kalydor will be found excellent (beyond precedent) in ameliorating and allaying that most unpleasant sensation.

It protects the Skin from the baneful effects occasioned either by intense solar heat or cold winds, and thus to the Traveller, whose avocations expose him to various changes of weather, proves an infallible Specific — a prompt resource; and, as conducive to comfort, a pleasing appendage and valuable acquisition.

Price 4s. 6d. and 8s. 6d. per Bottle, duty included.

* * * To prevent Imposition, the Name and Address of the Proprietors, as under, is ENGRAVED ON THE GOVERNMENT STAMP affixed over the cork of each Bottle. All others are Spurious.

TESTIMONIALS.

TO MESSRS. ROWLAND AND SON.

Gentlemen, — I with pleasure acknowledge the singular benefit I have derived from your excellent Kalydor. My face, which has been subject to inflammation and Eruption for years, is now restored; and my friends, to whom I recommended it, gave it their decided approbation. Please to send six bottles per bearer of this note.

I remain, Gentlemen, your obedient Servant,
Bangor, Sept. 17, 1837. A. H.

TO MESSRS. ROWLAND AND SON,

Hambro', March 23.
Gentlemen, — I am happy to inform you, that the virtue of your Kalydor has obtained great fame, and that there is scarcely a Lady or Gentleman, but which has it at her toilet; it is not only a favourite with the ladies, but is equally beneficial to Gentlemen; and one of our first physicians, sixty years of age, whose face was in a state of continual inflammation so as to render shaving impossible, has been entirely cured. He is much gratified, and recommends it to all families.

TO MESSRS. ROWLAND AND SON,

Theatre of Zoology, 8, Gower Place London University.
Gentlemen, — Having recently recovered from an almost fatal illness arising from the effects of morbid poison being laboured by a wound I received in dissection last November, I have, in consequence of the extreme tenderness of my skin, used your Kalydor, and consequently can bear testimony to its good effects; also in severe cases of cutaneous defect. I remain, your's obediently
June 7, 1832. H. W. Dewhurst, Surgeon.

The Premiums are payable yearly in advance; or, at the option of the Assured, half-yearly, with a slight increase of the rate.

The Capital and Profits of this Institution are the ENTIRE PROPERTY of the holders of Policies of Insurance.

The Profits will be divided amongst the holders of Policies, at the termination of every period of THREE YEARS, after the year 1850, when the first distribution will take place; and each holder may determine that his Share shall be added to the sum assured by him;—or converted into a present payment;—or applied in reduction of the future annual premiums payable by him.

The pecuniary advantages, therefore, are the greatest that can be secured to Policy-holders in any Institution of this nature.

Any Person whose Life is assured, and who has paid Five Annual Premiums, may proceed direct to any part of this Colony, and to any dependency thereof;—and to any part of Europe in time of peace, at his pleasure.

Any Person whose Life is assured may proceed direct to any part of this Colony, and to any dependency thereof by sea and by land, at his pleasure.

For those who have not paid Five Annual Premiums, a Licence from the Board of Directors, but no additional Premium, is required when they proceed beyond the limits of this Colony and the dependencies thereof.

No restriction of this nature, it will therefore be seen, can reasonably consult the convenience of the assured to a greater extent.

By comparing the Rates or Scale of Premiums, the Public will perceive that those adopted by this Society are lower than those adopted by any respectable and safe Companies, in which, of course, a proper return for paid-up Capital, for risks, with profit to the Shareholders, must be provided for, as well as the benefit of the Assured or Policy-holders.

In this Society the Members and Policy-holders bring the only Shareholder, receive back directly whatever excess of Rate the Tables may still retain. Every error, therefore, fully corrects itself;—and in this respect, also, MUTUAL ASSURANCE SOCIETIES excel all others.

The Principle and Tables of the Scottish Equitable Life Assurance Society have been adopted; and that Society in the course of only thirteen years from its commencement, after meeting all demands, sets forth, that its "NETT REALISED FUNDS amount to £263,719 6 8,"—although in Scotland the rate of interest is more than FORTY PER CENT. LOWER THAN AT THE CAPE.

Administration of Estates or other Property in Trust.

This branch of the institution embraces the administration and management of the Property or Estates of deceased or insolvent persons, of minors, lunatics, absentees, or others.

For the due discharge of such trusts, the capital and proprietary of the Company afford ample security, while the permanency of a public institution of this nature, is a sure protection against the uncertainty and disadvantages which, not unfrequently, attend individual administrations. All claims accruing on Policies in this Office are paid in Cape Town, three months after notice.

Ten tweeden, voor het goedmaken van de koelen van hun eigen Gouvernement, t. w.: den Britschen Resident van Bloem Fontein, Magistrate, enz., als naderhand zullen worden aangesteld met Sheriff's Ambten, Constabels, enz., en Veldkommandanten en Veldkornetten enz., zoo als de organisatie van het land vereischen zal, en voor het goedmaken der kosten van het zeuden naar

Dat geen voordeel hoegenaamd, toekomt noch verlangt wordt door Hare Majesteit, behalve de voldoening welke Hare Majesteit de Koningin altyd gevoelen zal in het onderhouden van eenen regtmatigen vrede, en het verbeteren van den staat van haar volk, en hunne vooruitgang in de zegeningen van christendom beschaving, en andere gewoonten van vlyt en eerlykheid, welke de barbaar kunnen verhoogen en beschaven, en de christelyke maatschappij schragen en in stand houden, en dus zal die vrede worden daargesteld welke Hare Majesteit verlangt te bewerken, en het besluit heeft te laud haven.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. den Administrateur des Gouvernements,

(Get.) JOHN MONTAGU,

Gouvernements Secretaris.

Bloem Fontein, 24 January, 1848.

Ten einde duurzaam en op eenen vriendschappelyken voet en betrekkingen te bevestigen tusschen Kapitein Adam Kok en de uitgewekene Britsche Onderdanen, stelt Zyne Excellentie de Hooge Commissaris voor aan Kapitein Adam Kok, dat in plaats van de helft van de Erfpachten welke hy nu ontvangt uit kracht van het Tractaat van den 5den February 1816, hy zal ontvangen Twee Honderd in het jaar, in half jaarlyksche betalingen van Een Honderd Pond; en dat zyn volk voor de landeryn die hetzelfde verhuurd heeft, zal genieten Een Honderd Ponden in het jaar, in twee betalingen van £50 ieder.

Dat naar mate de huren waaronder Britsche Onderdanen nu landeryn bezitten, in het onverschroombare Eigendom zullen verstryken, alle zoodanige Onderdanen zullen gehouden zyn dat Grondgebied te verlaten, mits ontvangende van de Griekwas betaling van de waarde der gebouwen en verbeteringen door hen op zoodanige landeryn gemaakt, volgens eenen waardering welke met eens zal worden gemaakt door een Commissie, bestaande uit den Britschen Resident Kapitein Adam Kok, Kapitein Adam Koks Secretaris Hendrik Hendriks, en eenen van de Uitgewekenen Boeren, zullende de stemmen van meerderheid beslissend zyn op iedere punt, waarin zy niet zullen overeenstemmen.

Ingeval de Griekwas niet in staat zyn het bedragen der waardering te betalen, op den tyd van het verstryken der huur, zal de huurder gerechtigd zyn bezit te houden van het eigendom, tegen eenen jaarlyksche huur, te worden bepaald door de commissie voormeld, of zoodanige andere als men op zal overeenkomen, tot de betaling zal geschieden of tot de jaarlyksche huur (welke huurder in dat geval zal mogen terug houden,) de voormelde waardering zal belopen.

De Hooge Commissaris proponert mede aan Kapitein Adam Kok, dat de bovenstaande som van £300 in het jaar, duurzaam zal moeten worden betaald voor de plaatsen verhuurd, nu al een voor 49 jaren in het vervreemdbare Grondgebied, en welke huren voortdurend zullen zyn voor de vergoeding voormeld, t. w. £300 in het jaar.

Bovenstaande in de Hollandische Taal zynde vertaald, verklaarde Kapitein Adam Kok in de voorgestelde termen en voorwaarden in te stemmen.

GOVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

Koloniale Secretary, 23 February 1848.

ZYNE Excellentie de Administrateur des Gouvernements heeft goedgevonden de Publicatie van het onderstaande Document tot algemeen narigt te gelasten.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. den Administrateur des Gouvernements,

(Get.) JOHN MONTAGU,

Gouvernements Secretaris.

Windburg, 27 January 1848.

Zyne Excellentie de Hooge Commissaris en het Groote Opperhoofd Moshesh, heden zynde byeengekomen, volgens afspraak, tot het behandelen van de zaak van het Grondgebied, nu bezeten door de Britsche Uitgewekenen, zynde een deel van de bezittingen van gez. Groote Opperhoofd, zoowel als tot het overwegen van de zaken van Zuidelyk Afrika, ten Noorden van de Groote Oranje Rivier in het algemeen. Stemde het Groote Opperhoofd volkomen in met het voorstel van Zyne Excellentie, dat vrede eendragt en rust niet kunnen worden daargesteld zonder het bestaan van eenig groot en oppergezag. Ten einde dat doel daar te stellen en tevens de erfelyke regten van de Opperhoofden onschendbaar te bewaren, en om krachtadig de Boeren te beperken binnen de limieten en op de locatien welke zy nu bezitten, en dat Magistrate kunnen worden aangesteld, en Inspecteurs gebezigd om dezelve te verzekeren, stelde Zyne Excellentie voor het proclameren van de Souvereiniteit van de Koningin van Engeland over het geheele grondgebied waarover Hare Majesteits Onderdanen zich hebben verspreid, gedeeltelyk door aankoop, gedeeltelyk by toelating en dikwyls zonder een van beiden. De gepastheid van deze groote maatregel waar in de Groote Opperhoofden vroeger mede geconferreerd, t. w.: Moroko, Adam Kok, en andere mindere Opperhoofden, ten vollen hadden ingestemd, keurde het Opperhoofd Moshesh volkomen goed, en verklaarde ten sterksten dat zulk een Oppergezag volstrekt noodig was, om in strikte verbintenis met Hare Majesteit van Engeland die harmonie en eenstemmigheid te onderhouden, welke het zyn verlangen en wensch was geweest daar te stellen. Zyne Excellentie sprak over het traktaat aangegaan in 1845 met Sir Peregrine Maitland, en de ontvangst van een gedeelte der erfpachten als daarin vermeld, waarop gez. Opperhoofd zeide, dat hy den Hoogen Commissaris niet had bezocht op eenig geldelyk punt, dat hy geheel verlangde te laten varen; maar dat, daar hy altoos de trouwe vriend was geweest van zoodanigen van Harer Majesteits Onderdanen die uitgeweken waren, en verlangd hadden zich in zyn gebied te vestigen, zoo was alles dat hy hoopte dat de maatregel van staatkunde welke de Hooge Commissaris verlangde aan te nemen om de rust en eendragt tusschen Harer Majesteits en zyn eigen Onderdanen te bewaren, zou worden volvoerd. Hierop en in den naam van Hare Majesteit complimenterde en dankte Zyne Excellentie het Groote Opperhoofd Moshesh, zeggende, dat hy niet in staat was te verklaren wat hy het meest bewonderde, zyn gevoel als een man, of zyne grootmoedigheid als een Opperhoofd. De Hooge Commissaris stelde toen voor dat ter ere van dien dag, hem mogt vergund worden, in den naam van Hare Majesteit, jaarlyks van de Kaapstad zoodanige artikelen van Britsche Manufactuur te zenden, welke hy hoopte dat voor het Opperhoofd zouden aanneemlyk zyn.

En dus eindigde eenen conferentie even voldoende voor de Hooge Contracterende partijen als men hoopt dat deszelfs gevolgen gelukkig en duurzaam zullen zyn.

ORDINANCE

Enacted by the Administrator of the Government of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

For reducing the Postage upon Religious Publications of or under a certain weight.

WHEREAS there is reason to believe that the diffusion of Religious Knowledge, by means of Religious Periodical Publications, is much restricted by the rate of Postage to which such Publications, even when they do not exceed an ounce in weight, are by law subjected. And whereas, it is expedient to reduce the Postage upon Religious Periodical Publications not exceeding one ounce in weight to one penny,—Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that so much of Ordinance No. 1. of 1846, entitled "Ordinance for the Regulation of the Post Office and Postage,"—as is repugnant to, or inconsistent with, any of the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be repealed, and the same is hereby repealed accordingly.

2. And be it enacted, that all Religious Periodical Publications printed in this Colony, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, shall be carried by Post from any Post Office within the Colony, to any other Post Office within the same, and there delivered, upon being pre-paid, for Postage, one penny. Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to any Publication which shall not be certified to the Governor for the time being, by one Minister, or more, of some denomination of Christians, to be a Religious Periodical Publication, nor to any which the said Governor shall not authorise the Post-master General of this Colony, for the time being, to receive and convey at the reduced rate of Postage, provided by this Ordinance.

3. And be it enacted, that this Ordinance shall commence and take effect from and after the promulgation thereof.

WHEREAS several of the buildings used as Public Gaols in this Colony are in a very defective state and condition, owing to which, it is difficult to prevent prisoners from escaping, or to classify prisoners properly, or introduce, to any extent, any uniform or efficient system of management in regard to such gaols: And whereas it is intended, as soon as may be, to cause the said defective gaols to be improved, and it is therefore expedient to provide for the establishment of an uniform and efficient system of prison discipline:—Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that it shall and may be lawful for the Governor aforesaid, with the advice of the Executive Council of the Colony, to make such rules for the government of the several gaols of this colony, respectively, and for the duties to be performed by the several officers of the same, as the said Governor shall deem expedient, and such rules, from time to time, to alter and amend; and all such rules so made, shall be binding upon the keeper of the gaol, and all other persons therein. Provided always, that all such rules shall be consistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, and that no such rule shall, except so far as by this Ordinance provided, be competent to impose any punishment or penalty, for or on account of any breach thereof, by any person whomsoever, save only dismissal from office, in the case of persons employed in Her Majesty's Service.

2. And be it enacted, that the keeper of every gaol shall be appointed by the Governor aforesaid, and shall be under the immediate authority and superintendence of the resident magistrate of the district in which the gaol in question shall be situate; and shall, in virtue of his office be a constable, and possess all the powers by law belonging to the office of constable; and shall reside within the prison of which he is keeper, and shall not employ himself in any other occupation.

ORDINANCE

Enacted by the Administrator of the Government of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

For Improving the Port of Table Bay.

WHEREAS the construction of a Sea Wall running from the North Jetty in Table Bay, or the vicinity thereof, to or towards the shore of the said Bay, at or near the old Port Office, would very much conduce to the convenience of the shipping, and promote the Trade of Cape Town, and the Colony: And whereas it is considered that the expense of constructing the said Sea Wall would probably be defrayed, or nearly so, by the proceeds of the land which would thereby be reclaimed from the sea, together with the proceeds of certain other land adjoining, now waste and unproductive: And whereas, in order to assist in the construction of the said wall, and in consideration of the great public advantage likely to arise therefrom, the Municipality of Cape Town has signified its readiness to devote the said waste and unproductive land to the promotion of the said object: And whereas the execution of the said work may most fitly and properly be delegated to a Board of Commissioners, to be appointed under and by virtue of the Ordinance No. 21, of 1847, entitled "an Ordinance for improving the Ports, Harbours, and Roadsteads of this Colony," in whom should be vested the waste land aforesaid, as well as the other land to be reclaimed from the sea; Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that when and as soon as a Board of Commissioners shall be appointed under and by virtue of the Ordinance aforesaid, for, or in respect of, the Port of Table Bay, the said Board shall be charged with the construction, with all convenient speed, of such a Sea Wall as aforesaid, upon such a plan, and of such a nature, as they shall deem best calculated to promote the improvement of the Harbour and the Town.

2. And be it enacted, that upon the appointment of such Board as aforesaid there shall vest therein for the purposes of the ordinance aforesaid, and as if the same had been, by that said Board, reclaimed from the sea, all the land being now waste and unproductive, lying within the limits following, that is to say,—a line commencing at the Northwestern corner of the old Port Office, as marked A in the plan herewith mentioned, running from thence in a Northerly direction, a distance of 500 feet to point B on the said plan,—thence branching off at an angle containing 118° with the last line in a Westerly direction a distance of 1520 feet to the point marked C on the said plan—thence in a Northerly direction a distance of 400 feet and marked D on the said plan—thence to the North East corner of the Gas Works, point E—thence along the Western side of Long-street until it reaches the point F on the said plan—thence along the Southern side of the Waterkant, to a point shown by G, in the said plan—and from thence to the original starting point marked A—the said limits being shown by, or computed in a certain plan, or drawing framed by Lt.-Colonel CHARLES CORNWALLIS MICHELL, Surveyor General of the Colony, and signed by WILLIAM HOPE, Esq., Clerk of this Council, and now deposited in the Office of the Registrar of Deeds, there to remain for reference and examination.

3. And be it enacted that, when and as soon as the governor of this Colony shall notify to the said Board that the same is no longer needed for public purposes, there shall vest in the said Board so much of the piece of ground on which the Gaol or Public Prison now stands, and is contained within, or shown by the letters A, B, C, D, on the plan aforesaid,—the said ground to be so vested in the said Board for the same purposes as are already declared in regard to the certain other ground in the last preceding section mentioned.

4 And be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Board to sell the land hereby, or by the Ordinance aforesaid, in them vested, or so much thereof as shall not be required for Public purposes, at such times, and in such lots, and under such conditions, as shall be deemed expedient, and the proceeds of all such sales shall be applied by the said Board for the purpose of the said Ordinance No. 21, of 1847.

5. And be it enacted, that the said Board shall keep or cause to be kept fit and proper accounts, showing the costs and charges expended on the construction of the said Sea Wall, and also the amount of all monies to be realized or received from the sale of all such lands as aforesaid, and if it shall be found that the monies so realized or received shall exceed the costs and charges so expended as aforesaid, the surplus shall be paid into the Treasury of the Municipality of Cape Town. Provided always, that the said Municipality shall not be bound or obliged to make good any deficiency, should the costs and charges so expended exceed the sums so realized and received.

6. And be it enacted, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to prevent the Board aforesaid from effecting any other work or works by the Ordinance aforesaid, authorised to be performed.

7. And be it enacted that this Ordinance shall commence and take effect from and after the promulgation thereof.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

WHEREAS by Government Notice bearing date the 15th day of May 1844, Sir Peregrine Maitland did publish and make known the Conditions and Regulations upon which the unappropriated Crown Lands in this Colony will, in future, be disposed of: And whereas by the 5th Article thereof, it is provided, that the intended sales of such Lands shall be advertised for two months in the Government Gazette, at the expiration of which time they will be sold by public auction:—And whereas by the 2d Article of the said Conditions and Regulations, it is further provided, that the upset price for such sales shall be Two Shillings (2s.) per acre, or such higher price as the Governor shall fix:—Now, therefore, I do hereby proclaim and make known, that on Saturday, the 18th March next, the several pieces of Crown Lands described in the annexed List or Schedule, will be offered for sale, by public auction, in front of the Commercial Exchange, Cape Town, at the respective upset prices in the said List mentioned, and subject to the several stipulations in regard to payments as are in the said Conditions and Regulations contained and set forth.
